FOUNDER

LAMAR HUNT

As the organizer of the American Football League 35 years ago, Lamar Hunt's activities helped positively change the face of America's favorite game. Hunt is among those most responsible for the development, direction and design of the modern-day National Football League.

As the founder of the Chiefs franchise, Hunt helped provide Kansas City with a team that became the winningest in the 10-year history of the AFL and earned spots in two Super Bowls, as well as the 1969 World Championship. As the founder of the AFL, and a principal negotiator in the merger with the NFL, Hunt helped pave the way for much of the modern growth of pro football. Possibly the greatest tribute to his contributions to pro football is the AFC Championship Trophy that carries his name.

Another indication of Hunt's contributions to the game is that he was the first AFL figure to be honored by enshrinement in the Pro Football Hall of Fame at Canton, Ohio. That high honor was bestowed on him in the summer of 1972.

In 1982, Hunt was singled out by the NFL Alumni Association, receiving the prestigious Leather Helmet Award, and has subsequently been honored in the Sports Hall of Fames of both Missouri and Texas. In February of last year, he received the Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award from the Maxwell Club for continuing positive contributions to the game.

The early days of the AFL were problem-filled but Hunt saw his franchise achieve on-field success. In 1962, the Texans won the AFL Championship with an overtime victory over Houston, the first of three titles won by the Texans/Chiefs in the 10-year history of the league. They repeated as champions in both 1966 and 1969. By winning the '66 title, the Chiefs earned the right to play in the first Super Bowl against the NFL champion Green Bay Packers. Three years later, the Chiefs claimed Kansas City's first world major league sports championship by defeating the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl IV.

In 1960, Hunt helped make pro football history by founding and organizing the AFL, which included his Dallas Texans franchise. After three years, the team moved to Kansas City, where the organization celebrated its 30th year in Mid-America in 1992.

Lamar Hunt has been a leader in the game for over 35 years, and few individuals have helped shape the game more than this quiet Texan. He maintains a Dallas residence but has actively contributed to the Kansas City economy through the development of the multi-million-dollar recreational theme park "Worlds of Fun," and in addition, 10 years ago the family-controlled Hunt Midwest Corporation also opened the "Oceans of Fun" water park. The Hunt family is the principal owner of the Kansas City-based company.

Hunt was a chief negotiator in the merger of the AFL and NFL in the late sixties and was one of the principal designers of the playoff format. Hunt is credited with accidentally putting the name "Super Bowl" on the NFL's championship game – the name coming from his children's toy "Super Ball."

A year-round sports fan, Hunt is involved in several additional entertainment ventures. He is one of the founding investors in the three-time World Champion Chicago Bulls of the NBA. He and his family were also involved in the development of the North American Soccer League and World Champion Tennis. Both of those entities are now defunct; however, in a unique twist, Hunt's involvement in these ventures resulted years later in his induction into the respective Halls of Fame of both United States Soccer (Oneonta, New York) and International Tennis (Newport, Rhode Island).

As President of the American Football Conference, Hunt is a working member of several prominent NFL committees, and has actively worked on development of the international aspects of the sport.

Hunt was born August 2, 1932, in El Dorado, Arkansas, and graduated from SMU with a B.S. in geology in 1956. While at SMU, he was a four-year reserve end on the varsity football team. He and his wife, Norma, have four children, Lamar, Jr., Sharron, Clark and Daniel, and the six together are the most enthusiastic supporters of Chiefs "Red and Gold."

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

JACK W. STEADMAN

In 1994, the Kansas City Chiefs began their 35th season as a pro football franchise under the leadership of Jack Steadman, Chairman of the Board.

A recognized leader among pro football administrators, Steadman has structured the Chiefs organization to meet the challenge brought about by growth of the business of pro football over the years.

As the Chiefs begin their 32nd season in Kansas City, and their 23rd season in magnificent Arrowhead Stadium, Steadman can look with pride at the list of football and administrative accomplishments the organization has achieved since moving from Dallas for the beginning of the 1963 season in the old American Football League.

It was Steadman who conceived the idea of Kansas City building the dual Harry S. Truman Sports Complex which houses the Chiefs in the 78,000-seat Arrowhead Stadium, and Royals baseball in the 42,000-seat Kauffman Stadium. This complex is recognized as the finest of its kind in the world.

Steadman was promoted from General Manager to Executive Vice President and General Manager in 1966; in August of 1976 he was named President of the Chiefs in charge of all operating operations; and in 1989 was named Chairman of the Board.

After establishing himself as an innovative, successful businessman with the Kansas City Chiefs Football Club, Jack Steadman joined Lamar Hunt in the development of Worlds of Fun. The 165-acre family entertainment complex opened in 1973 and drew over 800,000 guests during its first season of operation. After 22 years, Worlds of Fun has grown from 60 rides, shows and attractions to over 115. Over 26 million guests have enjoyed Worlds of Fun since 1973.

In 1982, HME Entertainment, Inc., completed the 60-acre family water recreation park, Oceans of Fun. Located adjacent to Worlds of Fun, Oceans of Fun has hosted over three million guests since its opening.

In addition to serving as Chairman of the Chiefs and Hunt Midwest Enterprises, Inc., which owns Worlds of Fun and Oceans of Fun theme parks, Hunt Midwest Mining, a limestone rock mining company, and Hunt Midwest Real Estate Development Co., an underground and surface real estate development firm in the Kansas City International Foreign-Trade Zone, he also serves on the Board of Directors of Commerce Bank and is the Chairman of the NFL Employees Benefit Plan Committee.

Actively involved within the community since arriving in Kansas City, Steadman is a tireless worker and detailed organizer in many civic and service projects. He is a past Chairman, President and Campaign Chairman of the Heart of America United Way, and past President of the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City. He is a past Chairman and Board Member of the Private Industry Council as well as the Full Employment Council. He serves as a director of the American Royal Association, Starlight Theatre Association, and Private Industry Council. Steadman also serves as an Advisory Trustee for Midwest Research Institute and is a member of the Civic Council. In 1988 he was honored by the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City as the "Kansas Citian of the Year."

Steadman, who was born September 14, 1928, grew up in Warrenville, Ill., and in Dallas. He attended Baylor University and received his B.A. in business administration from Southern Methodist University. Jack and his wife, Martha, who also is involved in a number of civic organizations in Kansas City, live in Mission Hills, Kansas.

PRESIDENT/GM

CARL PETERSON
President/General Manager and Chief Executive Officer

The Chiefs revitalization the past five years under Carl Peterson's guidance has not been lost on club founder Lamar Hunt. In May of '94, Hunt promoted Peterson to Chief Executive Officer of the club.

"Under Carl's leadership, the Chiefs have achieved a high level of respect as one of the leaders in the NFL," said Hunt. "This respect has been measured in several principal areas, including development and guidance of a quality organization in every phase—front office, scouting, coaching and team."

Hunt cited improvements in the following key areas under Peterson's leadership:

• Season ticket sales have risen from 26,000 in 1988 to 69,000 in 1994—the fourth highest in pro sports.

• In-stadium attendance where the Chiefs have attained a position in the top two in the NFL in 1991 and 1993.

• Win-loss percentage where the Chiefs have recorded a winning percentage of 65.6% for regular season games during the past four years—the fourth-best record in the NFL.

The past four seasons have been especially productive ones for the Chiefs. The Chiefs are one of just three NFL teams to make the playoffs each of the past four years. Last season the Chiefs won their first division title since '71 and made their first championship game appearance since '69. The team also put together four consecutive 10-win seasons for the first time ever. The Chiefs have dominated division opponents of late, winning 23 of their last 28 AFC West games.

Playoff participation and winning seasons are nothing new to Peterson, who played an integral role in the success of the USFL's Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars, the Philadelphia Eagles and UCLA. Since he was appointed Player Personnel Director of the Eagles in 1977, the pro teams he has been associated with have a combined record of 138-72-2 (.656). In his last 13 seasons in pro football, his teams have had winning records 12 times and made the playoffs on 11 occasions.

Despite his unquestioned success with the Chiefs, he refuses to sit back and admire his accomplishments.

"I'm leery of anything that gives the impression that this job is finished, that it's time to stop and pat somebody on the back," he stated. "There is no magic wand that suddenly puts us in the Super Bowl. There's a tremendous amount of hard work left."

One area that Peterson has always excelled in is unearthing talent. In his brief tenure with the Chiefs, he and the club's outstanding scouting department used the college draft, trades and free agent market to build the club's talent pool.

Each of the Chiefs last four drafts have produced major contributors: Derrick Thomas (five Pro Bowls), Dale Carter (NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year), Tim Grunhard (four-year starter), Dave Szott (four-year starter), Will Shields (consensus all-rookie), Charles Mincy, Derrick Graham, Darren Mickell, and Joe Valerio.

A 1993 trade with the San Francisco 49ers brought the Chiefs quarterback Joe Montana, the NFL's all-time leading passer and a three-time Super Bowl MVP, and safety David Whitmore, the Chiefs starting free safety in 1993. Kansas City also landed 10-year veteran quarterback Steve Bono in a trade with the 49ers this year.

The Chiefs scouting braintrust has also tapped the free agency market to further stockpile talent such as Marcus Allen, Dan Saleaumua, Willie Davis, J.J. Birden, Tracy Simien, Joe Phillips, Tony Casillas, Mark Collins, Keith Cash, Ricky Siglar, Doug Terry, Tim Newton and Kimble Anders.

Peterson has led the Chiefs to many off-the-field successes as well. Season ticket sales have soared to a level last seen in the early 1970s. In 1992, the club cut off season ticket sales at 65,000, and the current season-ticket sales ceiling is 69,000. The team's last 26 games at Arrowhead Stadium have been sold out, and last season, the club averaged 75,778 fans during the regular season, which was second only to Buffalo (78,454).

Under Peterson, the Chiefs have also added new grass practice fields, complete with a prescription drainage system, and a much-needed indoor practice complex that includes 90 yards of omniturf plus new weight-training facilities, training rehabilitation facilities and locker rooms. In 1994, the Chiefs will play home games on a grass playing surface for the first time since '71, the team's last season at Municipal Stadium.

Peterson's reputation as one of football's top executives began in 1977, when he became the Director of Player Personnel for the Philadelphia Eagles. As the man chiefly responsible for the acquisition of talent, he helped take a team which had not produced a winning team in 12 years and transformed it into a playoff participant his final four seasons. The highlight of those four years came in 1980, when the Eagles won the NFC Championship and advanced to Super Bowl XV in January of 1981.

After his rapid success with the Eagles, Peterson was the man selected to build the Philadelphia Stars when the United States Football League (USFL) was launched in July of 1982. As the franchise's President and General Manager, he proceeded to put together the most successful team in the league's three-year existence, capturing the USFL title the final two seasons. The Stars 41-12-1 record during the regular season and 7-1 mark in the postseason play were easily the finest of any USFL team. His efforts were rewarded in 1983 and 1984, when he was named The Sporting News' "USFL Executive of the Year."

Peterson displayed his knack for discovering and developing young players long before he took over the Chiefs fortunes. With the Eagles, he found Pro Bowl running back Wilbert Montgomery in the sixth round, claimed linebacker Jerry Robinson, the 1979 Rookie of the Year, with the 21st pick of the first round, and stole five-time Pro Bowl receiver Mike Quick with the 20th pick in round one. Several of his USFL acquisitions went on to become starters in the NFL. They include linebacker Sam Mills (Saints), center Bart Oates (Giants), tackle Irv Eatman (Chiefs, Jets, Rams and Falcons), linebacker Mike Johnson (Browns), linebacker George Jamison (Lions), punter Sean Landeta (Giants) and running back Kelvin Bryant (Redskins).

After his tenure in the USFL, Peterson entered private business, serving as President and Chief Executive Officer of Phillysport magazine in Philadelphia.

A 1966 graduate of UCLA, Peterson began his coaching career as an assistant at two California high schools, Wilson High in 1966 and Loyola High in 1967-68. He entered the college coaching ranks as an assistant at Cal-State at Sonoma in 1969, then was named head coach in 1970. He spent two years there before returning to his alma mater in 1972. He served as receivers coach at UCLA under Pepper Rodgers for two years, then remained on the staff as receivers coach and administrative assistant when Dick Vermeil became the Bruins head coach in 1974. Peterson stayed with Vermeil for two years at UCLA before the two made their move to the NFL, where he coached the Eagles receivers and tight ends.

Peterson serves on the National Boards for the Maxwell Football Club and Pop Warner Little Scholar Organization. He was recently elected Chairman of the Board of Trustees for Pop Warner. He is also a member of the Kansas City chapter of the Young President's Organization, as well as a member of the International World President's Organization.

The 50-year-old Peterson grew up in Long Beach, California, and attended both the U.S. Military Academy at West Point and UCLA. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Kinesiology from UCLA in 1966, a Master's Degree in Kinesiology in 1967 and later received a doctorate in Higher Education from UCLA in 1970.

Carl is single, resides in Kansas City, Missouri, and has one daughter, Dawn, a recent graduate of UCLA.

TIM CONNOLLY
Executive Vice President & Chief Operating Officer

Under the leadership of Tim Connolly the past five years, the Chiefs have excelled as well off the field as they have on it. Connolly, who assumed his role as Executive Vice President in '89 and added the title of Chief Operating Officer in June of this year, has initiated several positive changes in the team's front office that have produced extremely favorable results. His intuition and organizational skills have made the Chiefs a "model" pro sports franchise.

The Chiefs take a string of 25 straight sellouts into the '94 season, and with a season-ticket base at a self-imposed 70,000 cap, the club is virtually assured of a packed house for two preseason contests and all eight regular season games. Last season, the Chiefs averaged 75,778 fans, the most in team history and second in the NFL only to the Buffalo Bills (78,454). The Chiefs have averaged over 70,000 fans each of the past four seasons.

When Connolly took over the front office, the Chiefs had fewer than 30,000 season-ticket holders and a somewhat tranquil game-day atmosphere. Under Connolly's direction, a Chiefs game is now a happening. Several sports franchises have studied the Chiefs in order to add more flavor to their events.

The 45-year-old Connolly has been instrumental in expanding both the Chiefs radio network and preseason television package, which now serves an ever-increasing fan base in the Midwest. In addition, he has been responsible for over $13.5 million of capital expansion in the last four years.

On the administrative front, the Chiefs are now considered on the "leading edge." The recent installation of state-of-the-art computer systems, phone systems, and electronic ticketing systems have moved the Chiefs to the forefront of the NFL in technology and administrative productivity.

Connolly came to Kansas City after serving as President and Chief Executive Officer of two Bell Atlantic sudsidiaries: Bell Atlantic Mobile Systems, Bell Atlantic's cellular phone company; and SORBUS Corportion, the largest independent computer maintenance organization in the world.

He began his business career in 1971 at the IBM Corporation, where he served in various sales, staff and management positions. He graduated from George Washington University with a degree in finance.

Tim and his wife, Kathy, reside in Overland Park, Kansas, and have three children, Jennifer, Brianne and John.

LYNN STILES, Vice President of Player Personnel

Stiles, who begins his 16th season in the NFL, joined the Chiefs last year as Vice President of Player Personnel. Stiles oversees all of the club's scouting operations. He joined the Chiefs as a consultant to the personnel department in February of '92 and was elevated to his current position in May of that year.

Last season, he helped the Chiefs procure a number of talented players that made major contributions in the club's march to the AFC Championship Game. The Chiefs used their first round pick to land Joe Montana and David Whitmore. The second round choice was used the previous year to acquire Darren Mickell. In Round 3, the Chiefs found a gem in guard Will Shields, a starter and unanimous all-rookie selection. In '93 the Chiefs also landed Marcus Allen, Tim Newton, Jay Taylor, Jaime Field, Danan Hughes, Ron Dickerson and Bruce Pickens. The previous year, Dale Carter, Matt Blundin, Keith Cash, Joe Phillips and Doug Terry were brought into the fold. The '94 class appears to be very promising with ten draft picks represented by No. 1 Greg Hill (RB), No. 2 Donnell Bennett (RB), No. 3s Lake Dawson (WR) and Chris Penn (WR) plus the addition of Mark Collins (CB) through free agency and Vaughn Booker (DE) from Canada.

The 53-year-old Stiles rejoined Carl Peterson, the Chiefs President/General Manager. Stiles and Peterson worked together from '72-75 at UCLA and from '79-82 in the Philadelphia Eagles organization.

Stiles was previously an assistant coach with the San Francisco 49ers. He joined Bill Walsh's staff in '87 as special teams coach, and was promoted to special teams coordinator and tight ends coach in '89 by Head Coach George Seifert. In '91, he picked up additional duties as offensive line assistant. He helped the 49ers win back-to-back Super Bowl titles in '88-89.

Prior to his five-year stint with the 49ers, Stiles served as an assistant coach and player personnel executive director with the Eagles. From '79-82, he coached the special teams and tight ends, while also serving as an administrative assistant to head coach Dick Vermeil, highlighted by the '80 Super Bowl. He then followed Peterson as Director of Player Personnel and was eventually promoted to Executive Director of Player Personnel with the club. He helped Philadelphia acquire such talents as quarterback Randall Cunningham, defensive end Reggie White, linebacker Seth Joyner, defensive end Clyde Simmons, safety Wes Hopkins, safety Andre Waters and running back Keith Byars.

Stiles was the Head Coach at San Jose State from '76-78, compiling an 18-16 record and two conference championships. During his first season with the Spartans, he oversaw the development of quarterback Steve DeBerg, who was named Pacific Coast Athletic Conference MVP in his only year of major college football. He also served as defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at UCLA ('70-75) under Pepper Rodgers and Dick Vermeil while helping guide the Bruins win in the '76 Rose Bowl. From '66-70, he coached the defensive linemen and linebackers at the University of Iowa and from '63-65, he served as an offensive line/defensive line assistant at Utah.

Stiles played both ways at the University of Utah ('59-62), gaining all-conference recognition as a guard as well as being selected to the All-Academic squad in 692. He also played in the '63 All-American Bowl. He was a two-time all-state pick and captain of the squad as a preparatory athlete from Reno (Nev.) High School ('56-59).

Born April 12, 1941, in Kermit, Texas, Lynn and his wife, Marigene, live in Kansas City, and have four children, Staci (28), Shon (24), Tiffany (16) and Blake (14).

DENNIS THUM
Assistant General Manager

Dennis Thum, who has played a major role in the Kansas City Chiefs front office the past 21 years, has been the club's Assistant General Manager since 1989. Thum assists Carl Peterson, the Chiefs President/General Manager and Chief Operating Officer, in overseeing the football side of the Chiefs operation.

The 42-year-old Thum is heavily involved in the preparation of the entire football budget, takes part in the negotiations of all player contracts, monitors the newly-imposed salary cap, and helps service the coaching staff, trainers, equipment personnel and video staff. He is also in charge of training camp operations and coordinates the team's travel.

Thum held the position of Assistant to the General Manager from '84 to '88, and was promoted to his current position shortly after Peterson's arrival in Kansas City five years ago. He served as the club's Director of Accounting in '83 and Chief Accountant in '82. A native of St. Louis, Missouri, Thum joined the Chiefs as a staff accountant in '74, the same year he graduated from Rockhurst College in Kansas City.

Born November 14, 1951, Dennis and his wife, Carmen, live in Kansas City, Missouri, with their two daughters, Megan (13) and Lindsay (10).

HEAD COACH

MARTY SCHOTTENHEIMER

When Marty Schottenheimer accepted the Kansas City Chiefs head coaching post on January 24, 1989, he said, "The best way to establish a position of excellence in the NFL is to expect it."

In the 17 years before Schottenheimer's arrival in Kansas City, expectations were often high but rarely realized as the club averaged just six wins per season and made one playoff berth. During Schottenheimer's five campaigns with the Chiefs, his teams have averaged 10 wins and advanced to the playoffs on four straight occasions. It is safe to say the Chiefs now expect to win, and do so often.

"He is, without a doubt, the fiercest competitor I have ever met," said Chiefs President and General Mananger Carl Peterson. "His record clearly speaks for itself. When I hired Marty, I knew it would be the best decision I would make in restructuring the Chiefs."

As the Chiefs head coach, Schottenheimer has put together a sparkling regular season record of 50-29-1, good for a franchise-record .632 winning percentage. He has directed the Chiefs to their first division title in 22 years, while guiding five of the their seven winning seasons since 1974. This past season he became just the 15th NFL coach to lead one club to four straight 10-win seasons.

Including his four-and-a-half-year stint as the head coach of the Cleveland Browns, Schottenheimer has a regular seaon mark of 94-56-1, making his winning percentage .626, third-highest among active coaches with four full seasons under their belts (George Seifert, .775, and Don Shula, .681). He has coached eight consecutive teams to winning records and led seven of his nine clubs to a 10-win season. He has been in the playoffs eight of his nine full seasons as a head coach, steering three of those to a conference title game, and is the only NFL coach that has taken his team to the playoffs eight times since 1985. His teams have won four division titles, one in Kansas City and three in Cleveland, while never finishing worse than second place in any of his nine full seasons.

Under Schottenheimer, Kansas City joins Buffalo and San Francisco as the only three teams to win 10 or more games in each of the past four seasons. Moreover, the Chiefs, Bills, and Oilers are the only three NFL clubs to make the playoffs each of the previous four campaigns. Kansas City's 42-22 record since 1990 is fourth-best in the league behind Buffalo (49-15), San Francisco (48-16) and Dallas (43-21).

Last season the Chiefs enjoyed their finest season since the 1969 World Championship campaign. The club captured its first division crown since 1971 with an 11-5 record and made its first title game appearance since 1969. The Chiefs went 11-5 during the regular season, the produced come-from-behind playoff wins over the Pittsburgh Steelers and red-hot Houston Oilers to earn a trip to their first ever AFC Championship Game. The Chiefs swept the Raiders, Seahawks and Chargers en route to a 7-1 AFC West record, the best in team history.

Despite injuries to several key players, the Chiefs battled to a 10-6 record and another playoff berth in 1992. The team showed its true heart in a season-ending 42-20 victory over the Broncos that put the Chiefs into postseason play.

In 1991, the Chiefs won their first playoff game since Super Bowl IV (Jan. 11, 1970) by upending the Los Angeles Raiders, 10-6, in an AFC Wild Card contest. That victory took place at Arrowhead, marking the first ever playoff game in the structure, which was completed in 1972.

In 1990, Schottenheimer directed the Chiefs to an 11-5 record, the club's finest in 21 years. He also led the team to postseason play for just the second time since 1971 and the first time since 1986. In the first-round playoff game, the Chiefs dropped a thrilling 17-16 decision to the Miami Dolphins.

The reversal of the Chiefs fortunes began in 1989, Schottenheimer's first season with the club. That season Kansas City posted an 8-7-1 record and missed a playoff berth by ½-game.

Schottenheimer firmly established himself as one of the NFL's best head coaches before venturing to Kansas City. In his four full seasons as the Browns head coach, he produced four playoff berths, three AFC Central titles, two AFC Championship Game appearances and consensus AFC Coach of the Year honors in 1986.

Schottenheimer embarked upon his first head coaching job at midseason in 1984 when the Browns promoted him from defensive coordinator to head coach as Sam Rutigliano's replacement. He took over a 1-7 team, yet managed to direct the Browns to a 4-4 finish in the season's second half. Three of the four losses were by field goals late in the game.

In 1985, his first full season as a head coach, Schottenheimer guided the Browns to the AFC Central title. The following year, he earned consensus Coach of the Year honors after piloting Cleveland to a 12-4 record, a second straight division crown and a spot in the AFC Championship Game, which the Browns lost to the Denver Broncos, 23-20, in overtime. Cleveland gained a third straight division title in 1987, and for the second consecutive year advanced to the AFC Championship Game, falling to Denver again, 38-33. Despite losing three quarterbacks and several other starters to injury in 1988, he led the Browns to a 10-6 mark and a playoff entry for the fourth year in a row.

Schottenheimer started his coaching career with the World Football League's Portland Storm in 1974. He opened that season as a player, but a shoulder injury ended his playing career, although he did continue tutoring the team's linebackers. A year later, he joined Bill Arnsparger—the architect of the Miami Dolphins "No-Name Defense"—with the New York Giants as linebackers coach, then was promoted to defensive coordinator at age 34 under John McVay in 1977. He then became the Detroit Lions linebackers coach in 1978, staying two years before making the move to Cleveland.

In 1965 Schottenheimer was selected in the fourth round of the NFL draft by the Baltimore Colts and in the seventh round of the AFL draft by the Buffalo Bills. He signed with the Bills and played with the club from 1965-68. He played with the Boston Patriots in 1969-70 before being traded to the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1971. After a training camp stint under Chuck Noll, Pittsburgh traded him back to the Colts, but he retired three weeks later when Baltimore released him. Following his retirement, he worked in real estate in Denver until resurfacing in the WFL.

Schottenheimer was an All-America linebacker at the University of Pittsburgh, where he was recently named to the school's all-time team. He played in the 1965 College All-Star Game at Soldier Field in Chicago (Browns beat All-Stars, 24-16). In that game, he played alongside Dick Butkus, Fred Biletnikoff, Roger Staubach, Bob Hayes and Bill Curry.

Schottenheimer, who now serves on the NFL's prestigious Competetition Committee, was an honor student and football/basketball standout at Ft. Cherry High School in McDonald, Pa. He was an All-Western Pennsylvania linebacker and the center on the state championship basketball team. He then began his college career at Pitt, where he earned an English degree.

Schottenheimer is a licensed pilot and flew with the Navy's Blue Angels in February of 1992.

Born September 23, 1943, in Canonsburg, Pa., Marty and his wife, Pat, have two children, a 24-year-old daughter, Kristen, who works in advertising, and a 20-year-old son, Brian, who is a quarterback at the University of Florida. The Schottenheimers reside in Overland Park, Kansas.

COACHING STAFF

DAVE ADOLPH, Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

A 31-year coaching veteran, Dave Adolph begins his third season as Kansas City's defensive coordinator. Adolph has been a defensive coordinator in the NFL the past eight seasons. Before coming to the Chiefs in '92, he spent three seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Los Angeles Raiders. He served as Marty Schottenheimer's defensive coordinator with the Cleveland Browns in '84 and '86-88. In '85 he was a defensive assistant with the San Diego Chargers.

Under Adolph's directon, the Chiefs defense ranked fourth in the AFC in '93 and third in '92. Only 10 opponents the past two seasons have managed to gain 300 total yards against the Chiefs. Last season Kansas City allowed just 101.3 rushing yards per game, the team's lowest yield since '71. The Chiefs big-play unit scored two touchdowns last year, giving the club eight in '92-93. The Chiefs had 38 takeaways in '93, the third-most in the league behind Buffalo (47) and Houston (43). Kansas City's defense got especially stingy when its back was against the wall. When opponents advanced the ball inside the Chiefs 20-yard line, they scored just 21 touchdowns on 54 attempts, a lowly 38.9% success rate. The team forced six fumbles inside the 20, including three goal-to-go situations.

Top-ranked defenses and big-play capability are nothing new to Adolph. In his last seven years as a defensive boss, his teams have permitted just 17.7 points per game and ranked among the NFL's Top 10 in total defense and passing defense five of the past seven seasons. From '87-93, the defenses that Adolph has coached have given up just 292 total yards per game and averaged two takeaways each game. His last seven units have also scored 26 defensive touchdowns, an average of nearly four a year.

The 57-year-old Adolph became the Browns defensive coordinator midway through the '84 season when Schottenheimer was promoted to head coach. Originally picked as the Browns defensive line coach in '79, he took over the club's linebackers in '81.

Before entering the pro coaching ranks, Adolph spent 16 years as a college assistant at several high-profile programs. He became an assistant to Rick Forzano at the University of Connecticut in '65. He then joined John Ray as defensive coordinator at Kentucky in '69. Following a four-year stint with the Wildcats, he became linebacker coach at Illinois, where he also stayed for four years. In '77-78 he worked with the legendary Woody Hayes at Ohio State.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Adolph attended Mogodore High School, then played guard and linebacker for the Akron Zips and was chosen the Ohio Valley Conference's top lineman in '58. After serving three years of Air Force duty ('59-61) as a commissioned officer, he began his coaching career at Cleveland's Shaw High School in '62. He followed that up by spending two years at his alma mater as offensive line coach.

Born June 6, 1937 in Akron, Dave and his wife, Bettey, live in Overland Park, Kansas with their children Shane (20) and Heather (18). Dave has three sons: Mike (31), Mark (29) and Tom (24).

Adolph's Coaching Career: Akron 1963-64; Connecticut 1965-68; Kentucky 1969-72; Illinois 1973-76; Ohio State 1977-78; Cleveland Browns 1979-84, 1986-88; San Diego Chargers 1985; Los Angeles Raiders 1989-91; joined Chiefs in 1992.

RUSS BALL, Assistant Strength and Conditioning

Beginning his sixth season as a strength and conditioning specialist in the NFL, Russ Ball assists Dave Redding in the physical development and maturity of the club's athletes. Ball also serves as the team's training camp coordinator in River Falls, Wisconsin.

Ball was the head strength coach at the University of Missouri from '82 to '88. In '82 he replaced Redding, who left the Tigers to join the Cleveland Browns. Ball was Missouri's assistant weight coach in '81 and '82.

The 34-year-old Columbia, Missouri, native earned four letters as a center at Central Missouri State University. He was an all-conference selection as a senior in '80. Ball was an all-state performer at Columbia Hickman High School in Columbia, Missouri. In '90, he earned a Master's Degree in Human Performace from the University of Missouri.

Born August 28, 1959, Russ is single and lives in Kansas City, Missouri.

Ball's Coaching Career: University of Missouri 1981-88; joined Chiefs in 1989.

JOHN BUNTING, Defensive Assistant

John Bunting, now in his second season with the Chiefs, brings a wealth of experience to the Chiefs as both a player and a coach. He spent 13 seasons as a pro linebacker and another seven as a coach, including five seasons as a collegiate head coach. Bunting works with the club's defensive line and linebackers, a task he performed during Kansas City's '92 training camp.

The 43-year-old Bunting spent the last five years ('88-92) as head coach at Rowan College, an NCAA Division III school in Glassboro, New Jersey. He built the Rowan program into one of the best in NCAA Division III. He amassed an impressive 38-14-2 record at Rowan, leading his team into the Division III playoffs in both '91 and '92. In '92, he directed the team to a perfect 10-0 regular season mark en route to Metropolitan New York Football Writers Association's Division III Coach of the Year honors. Prior to taking over the head coaching post, he spent one season as the school's defensive line coach and one season as defensive ends coach at Brown University.

Bunting spent 11 seasons as a linebacker with the Philadelphia Eagles and another two with the USFL's Philadelphia Stars. Despite joining the Eagles as a 10th-round draft choice in '72, he went on to play in 133 games with the club, primarily as a starting outside linebacker. He then played with the Stars in '83 and '84, before serving as the club's linebackers coach in '85. He played in the Eagles Super Bowl XV contest against the Oakland Raiders and was a member of the Stars USFL Championship team in '84.

During his senior year at North Carolina, Bunting, a team co-captain, received All-Atlantic Coast Conference and honorable mention All-America honors. A three-year starter for the Tar Heels, he went on to earn a B.S. degree in education from the university.

Born July 15, 1950 in Portland, Maine, John and his wife, Dawn, who was the woman's basketball coach at Rowan, reside in Stanley, Kansas. He has two children, Kim (25) and Brooks (20).

Bunting's Coaching Career: USFL Baltimore Stars 1985; Brown University 1986; Rowan College 1987-92 (head coach 1988-92); joined Chiefs in 1993.

HERMAN EDWARDS, Defensive Backs

Herman Edwards begins his third season as the Chiefs defensive backs coach. A 10-year NFL playing veteran, Edwards first came to Kansas City in '89 as the recipient of the club's Black Coaching Fellowship and later moved into the team's player personnel department as a talent scout. From '89-91, he served as an assistant secondary coach with the team during training camp. In '92 he was named Kansas City's defensive backs coach.

Last season, the Chiefs secondary was hit by numerous injuries, forcing the team to use five different starting combinations. Still, the club allowed just 196.6 passing yards per outing to rank seventh in the AFC and 14th in the NFL. The Chiefs intercepted 21 passes, the seventh-most in the league. In '92, his first season as secondary coach, the Chiefs pass defense ranked first in the AFC and second in the NFL. That year the team picked off 24 passes, the third-most in the league. Members of the big-play secondary tallied five touchdowns in '92. Edwards has played an integral role in the development of young defensive backs like Dale Carter, Charles Mincy and Doug Terry.

From '87 through '89, the 40-year-old Edwards was the defensive secondary coach at San Jose State. During each of his three seasons there, San Jose State's opponents completed less than 50 percent of their pass attempts.

Edwards' NFL career began with the Philadelphia Eagles in '77 when he was signed as a rookie free agent by Chiefs President/General Manager Carl Peterson, who was the Eagles Player Personnel Director at the time. Peterson and Dick Vermeil, the former Eagles and UCLA head coach, knew about Edwards because they originally tried to recruit him to attend UCLA out of high school. Edwards chose Cal-Berkeley, but helped Vermeil and the Eagles to a Super Bowl appearance following the '80 season.

As a starting cornerback for the Eagles from '77 through '85, he played in 135 straight games and ranks second on the club's all-time interception list with 33. He also made five interceptions in postseason play. He was a second team All-NFC pick in '80 and '82. He played a major role in one of the most incredible plays in NFL history in '78 when he scooped up a fumble by quarterback Joe Pisarcik and ran 26 yards for a touchdown with just 31 seconds remaining in a 19-17 win over the New York Giants that has become known as the "Miracle of the Meadowlands."

He lettered at San Diego State in '76 after transferring from Cal-Berkeley, where he was a two-time first team All-Pac 10 pick. He owns a share of a Cal record by intercepting four passes in a single game.

Born April 27, 1954 in Monmouth, New Jersey, Herman grew up in Seaside, California. He is single and resides in Kansas City.

Edwards' Coaching Career: San Jose State 1987-89; joined Chiefs in 1992.

ALEX GIBBS, Offensive Line

Alex Gibbs, a 25-year coaching veteran, begins his second season in charge of the Chiefs offensive line. Gibbs is extremely familiar with the AFC West, having spent nine of his ten seasons as an NFL assistant coach in the division.

The Chiefs young offensive line made great strides under Gibbs' watchful eye last year. The club permitted just six sacks the last six games of the season after allowing 29 in the first 10 games. Despite two first-time starters, right guard Will Shields and right tackle Ricky Siglar, the Chiefs cut their sack total from 48 in '92 to 35 last season. The line also helped the Chiefs average 3.7 yards per rushing attempt, up from 3.4 the year before. Under Gibbs's guidance left tackle John Alt earned his second Pro Bowl berth and Shields garnered consensus all-rookie honors.

The 53-year-old Gibbs first became an NFL assistant in '84 with the Denver Broncos, serving as that club's offensive line coach for four seasons under Dan Reeves. He was part of a staff that helped Denver make appearances in two straight Super Bowls (XXI and XXII). In '88-89, he was the Los Angeles Raiders assistant head coach under Mike Shanahan. He served a two-year stint as the San Diego Chargers offensive line coach in '90-91. In San Diego, he helped forge a unit that ranked second in the league in rushing offense in '91 with an average output of 140.5 yards per contest. The Chargers were the NFL's third-most potent rushing offense in '90 with an average of 141.1 yards per game. He spent 1992 as the Indianapolis Colts offensive line coach.

Gibbs coached on the collegiate level for 13 seasons before entering the pro ranks. He worked at Duke ('69-70) and Kentucky ('71-72) before moving to West Virginia ('73-74), where Bobby Bowden was the head coach. He then landed the offensive coordinator/line position at Ohio State. He spent '75-78 with the Buckeyes under the legendary Woody Hayes before moving to Auburn as offensive coordinator. He served three seasons at Auburn ('79-81), then coached the offensive line at Georgia from '82-83. He also logged three seasons at Mount Airy (N.C.) High School, where he won a pair of state championships.

A native of Burke County, North Carolina, Gibbs was running back and defensive back at Davidson College, where he was a pre-law major. He earned a master's degree from North Carolina in European history and a doctorate in education from Auburn.

Alex resides in Overland Park, Kansas with his wife, Anamaria, and has five children, Sandy (27), Steve (26), David (25), Chuck (23) and Mark (21).

Gibbs Coaching Career: Duke University 1969-70; University of Kentucky 1971-72; West Virginia University 1973-74; Ohio State University 1975-78; Auburn University 1979-81; University of Georgia 1982-83; Denver Broncos 1984-87; Los Angeles Raiders 1988-89; San Diego Chargers 1990-91; Indianapolis Colts 1992; joined Chiefs in 1993.

PAUL HACKETT, Offensive Coordinator/Quarterback

An exceptional collection of professional and collegiate players owe a substantial protion of their success to Paul Hackett, who joined the Chiefs in '93. Hackett, who oversees the Chiefs offense and tutors the club's quarterbacks, has overseen the development of offensive luminaries like Joe Montana, Steve Bartkowski, Marcus Allen, Charles White, Brian Sipe, Jerry Rice, Dwight Clark and Vince Evans, and has previously worked under head coaches Bill Walsh, Tom Landry, John Robinson and Sam Rutigliano.

Under the direction of the 47-year-old Hackett, the Chiefs offense had an exciting, new look in '93. The team's offensive output increased by 31.9 yards as the team's offensive ranking improved by nine places. Kansas City averaged 302.2 total yards per game to rank 16th in the NFL. The Chiefs had the AFC's second-ranked passer in Montana and the conference's top touchdown scorer in Allen. The Chiefs were much more efficient in the scoring zone last year. In '92, the team crossed the goal line on just 19 of 46 trips inside the opponent's 20-yard line for a 41.3%. Last year the Chiefs got 29 touchdowns on 48 opportunities, good for a 60.4%. The Chiefs offensive success was especially satisfying considering how many young players were utilized. Hackett oversaw the development of fledgling offensive players like Willie Davis, Keith Cash, Will Shields, Ricky Siglar and Kimble Anders. The Chiefs put three offensive players—Montana, Allen and tackle John Alt—into the Pro Bowl for the first time since '71.

While coaching the San Francisco 49ers quarterbacks and receivers under Bill Walsh from '83-85, he played a major role in the developing NFL powerhouse, whose innovative offense would serve as a standard of excellence throughout the '80s and into the '90s. With the 49ers, he helped train one of the greatest players in pro football history – Joe Montana. During the three years Hackett worked with Montana, the future Hall of Famer put up some incredible numbers: 914 completions, 1,441 attempts, 63.4 completion percentage, an average of 3,731 passing yards per season, 81 touchdowns and just 35 interceptions. During Hackett's tenure, the 49ers won their second Super Bowl and made two other playoff appearances.

Following his three-year stay with the 49ers, Hackett served a three-year term ('86-88) as the Dallas Cowboys pass offensive coordinator under Tom Landry and then moved to the University of Pittsburgh, where he remained for four years ('89-92).

Hackett spent one season as Pitt's quarterbacks coach before being named head coach one hour before the Panthers' John Hancock Bowl appearance on December 30 of '89. In three seasons as Pitt's head coach, he oversaw the development of quarterback Alex Van Pelt, who finished in the NCAA's Top 10 in total offense as a junior and senior. Although Pitt managed just a 3-9 record in '92, the team's offense was among college football's finest, finishing eighth in the NCAA in both total offense (452.4 yards per game) and passing offense (290.3 yards per game).

As a college senior at UC-Davis in '69, Hackett led the Far West Conference in passing, and remained at his alma mater for two seasons as head freshman coach. He then spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at Cal-Berkeley before becoming the Bears quarterbacks coach in '74-75. At Cal, he helped Steve Bartkowski become the nation's leading passer in '74, and the following year, the school's offense topped the nation. In '76, he moved downstate to USC, where he was assistant head coach to John Robinson and worked with a pair of Heisman Trophy winners in Marcus Allen and Charles White, while cultivating standout quarterbacks like Vince Evans and Paul McDonald. During his tenure, the Trojans won three Rose Bowls and were declared national champions in '79.

Hackett's pro coaching career began in '81, when he took a post as the Cleveland Browns quarterbacks coach under Sam Rutigliano. There, he worked with Brian Sipe, who led the Browns to the playoffs in '82. Schottenheimer was the Browns defensive coordinator at the time.

Hackett was born on July 5, 1947, in Burlington, Vermont, but spent most of his youth in Northern California. He and his wife, Elizabeth, reside in Overland Park, Kansas, and have two sons, David (23) and Nathaniel (14).

Hackett's Coaching Career: University of California-Davis 1970-71; University of California 1972-75; University of Southern California 1976-80; Cleveland Browns 1981-82; San Francisco 49ers 1983-85; Dallas Cowboys 1986-88; University of Pittsburgh 1989-92 (head coach 1990-92); joined Chiefs in 1993.

MIKE McCARTHY, Offensive Assistant/Quality Control

Mike McCarthy was added to the Chiefs coaching staff in '93 as offensive assistant/quality control, a newly-created position. McCarthy helps the coaching staff break down video and analyze opposing defenses, and is involved in self-scouting the Chiefs own offense.

The 30-year-old McCarthy spent '92 as the University of Pittsburgh's receivers coach under Paul Hackett, the Chiefs offensive coordinator. That season Pitt's offense ranked eighth in the nation, and the school's top receiver, Dietrich Jells, ranked 12th in the country in receiving yards per game (90.0). Before taking over as the Panthers' receivers coach, he was part of Pitt's coaching staff as a graduate assistant. In '89 he was a volunteer coach at Pitt, while the two previous seasons, he served as linebackers coach at Fort Hays (Kansas) State.

A starting tight end for two years at Baker University in Baldwin City, Kansas, McCarthy twice earned all-conference honors and was a team captain on the '86 NAIA Division II national champion runner-up squad. He also played tight end at Scottsdale (Ariz.) Junior College. He graduated from Baker with a business administration degree in '87, and went on to earn a master's degree in sports administration at Fort Hays State.

Born November 10, 1963, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Mike and his wife, Christine, have one daughter, Alexandra (3) and reside in Lenexa, Kansas.

McCarthy's Coaching Career: Fort Hays State University 1977-88; University of Pittsburgh 1989-92; joined Chiefs in 1993.

TOM PRATT, Defensive Line

During the past five seasons, Tom Pratt has overseen the growth and development of the Chiefs defensive line, which is regarded as one of the finest in the entire league. Pratt, who enters his 31st season as an NFL assistant coach, has aided in the rapid development of Neil Smith, the '93 NFL sack leader, and Dan Saleaumua, part-owner of the Chiefs all-time fumble recovery record with 15. Smith, a Pro Bowl choice the past three seasons, has 332 tackles, 54½ sacks, 17 forced fumbles and 11 fumble recoveries since Pratt's arrival in '89. Saleaumua has been the top tackler on the line the past four seasons. The same impact Pratt had on Smith and Saleaumua should benefit up-and-coming linemen like Darren Mickell, Pellom McDaniels and Rob Waldrop.

The previous four seasons, Pratt's line played a major role in Kansas City's "big play" defense. From '90-93, the Chiefs have produced 184 sacks, the fourth-most in the NFL, and 75 fumble recoveries, the second-most in the league. The defensive line has generated 102 of the sacks, while also amassing 29 fumble recoveries and 30 forced fumbles. Last year two of Pratt's pupils—Smith and Derrick Thomas—ventured to the Pro Bowl.

Pratt is in his second stint as the Chiefs defensive line coach, having served in the same capacity under Hank Stram and Paul Wiggin from '63-77. Following his 15-year stay in Kansas City, he made stops at New Orleans ('78-80) and Cleveland ('81-88).

Under Pratt's tutelage the Browns defensive front played a vital role in four consecutive playoff visits. Pratt's unit helped the Browns achieve the sixth-rated defense in the NFL in '88, while in '87, Cleveland allowed the AFC's fewest rushing yards and permitted the league's fewest touchdowns.

The 58-year-old Beloit, Wisconsin, native got his first pro coaching experience with the Chiefs when he joined Stram's staff in '63. During his stay in Kansas City, the Chiefs made two Super Bowl appearances, following the '66 and '69 seasons, and earned an NFL Championship when the Chiefs won Super Bowl IV. One of his finest coaching accomplishments was the defensive line formation of tackles Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp with ends Jerry Mays and Aaron Brown that led the Chiefs to their only NFL title.

After playing linebacker at the University of Miami from '53-56, Pratt stayed at his alma mater as a Hurricane assistant for four years. He coached at the University of Southern Mississippi from '61-62 before joining Stram's staff in Kansas City.

Born June 21, 1935, Tom and his wife, Hope, live in Leawood, Kansas, and have three children, Kendra (31), Shana (28) and Tyler (22).

Pratt's Coaching Career: University of Miami 1957-60; University of Southern Mississippi 1961-62; Kansas City Chiefs 1963-77; New Orleans Saints 1978-80; Cleveland Browns 1981-88; rejoined Chiefs in 1989.

JIMMY RAYE, Running Backs

Jimmy Raye, who is considered one of the NFL's brightest offensive minds, begins his second season as the Chiefs running backs coach after spending one season as an offensive assistant/tight ends coach with the club. Raye has been an assistant coach in the NFL the past 17 years, serving as an offensive coordinator as well as a receivers and running backs coach. Under his tutelage, two different receivers (Alfred Jenkins and Henry Ellard), two tight ends (Junior Miller and Jimmie Giles) and one running back (Marcus Allen) have participated in the Pro Bowl.

In his first season as Kansas City's running backs coach, Raye saw the club improve its yards-per-rush average from 3.4 in '92 to 3.7 in '93. Raye helped integrate the team's running backs into the passing game. Chiefs running backs caught 95 passes, the most since '88. Future Hall of Fame running back Marcus Allen earned a Pro Bowl berth and led the AFC in touchdowns with 15. Under Raye's guidance young fullbacks Kimble Anders and Ernie Thompson made great strides.

In '91, the 48-year-old Raye served as the Los Angeles Rams wide receivers coach and passing game coordinator. He spent '90 as the New England Patriots offensive coordinator. He started his professional coaching career in '77 as the San Francisco 49ers receivers coach, working with 49er great Gene Washington. In '78-79, he tutored the Detroit Lions offensive backs. Chiefs Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer was on the Lions coaching staff at the same time. He then began the first of two stints with the Atlanta Falcons, coaching the receivers there from '80-82, when he shared in an NFC West title and two playoff berths, and again from '87-89. In '83 he served as the Rams receivers coach, and in '84, he was promoted to offensive coordinator. In '85-86 he was the Tampa Bay Buccaneers offensive coordinator.

Raye spent one season ('69) as a defensive back with the Philadelphia Eagles. He then returned to his alma mater, Michigan State, as an assistant coach in '71. He stayed with the Spartans for five years before moving on to Wyoming, where he spent one season.

Raye was a quarterback at Michigan State from '65-67, and led the Spartants to a pair of Big Ten Conference titles, including a Rose Bowl appearance ('66). He started for the Spartans in the "Battle of the Century," the '66 game between Michigan State and Notre Dame, the top two ranked teams in the nation, that ended in a 10-10 tie.

Born March 26, 1946 in Fayetteville, North Carolina, Jimmy and his wife, Edwena, live in Kansas City. They have two children, Robin (26) and Jimmy III (24), who was a receiver at San Diego State from '88-90.

Raye's Coaching Career: Michigan State 1971-75; Wyoming 1976; San Francisco 49ers 1977; Detroit Lions 1978-79; Atlanta Falcons 1980-82, 1987-89; Los Angeles Rams 1983-84, 1991; Tampa Bay Buccaneers 1985-86; New England Patriots 1990; joined Chiefs in 1992.

DAVE REDDING, Strength and Conditioning

A good portion of the credit for the Chiefs becoming one of the NFL's premier teams must go to Dave Redding, who coordinates the club's off-season strength and conditioning program and the in-season maintenance efforts. One of the most highly-respected strength coaches in all of football, Redding redesigned the club's weight-training facilities and instituted a personalized conditioning program in '89, his first year with the Chiefs. Redding has created an environment that keeps players training in Kansas City year-round. More than 75% of the club's players participate in the volunteer programs on a regular basis.

In '93, Redding was honored by receiving the third annual Emrich/Riecke/Jones Award sponsored by U.S.A. Sports Fitness. The award is based on nominations and voting by NFL peers.

"Dave Redding, in my opinion, is the very best in the field," said head coach Marty Schottenheimer. "He's a tough and demanding coach who sets high standards. Dave works very closely with the players and produces great results."

The 42-year-old Redding became the Browns first strength and conditioning coach in '82 and stayed in that capacity until joining the Chiefs in '89. A 41-year-old native of North Platte, Nebraska, Redding instituted a highly-successful program with the Browns that included weightlifting, but also put an emphasis on flexibility, running, plyometric drills and speed enhancement — all of which he has stressed to Chiefs players the past four off-seasons.

Before working with professional athletes, Redding spent six years as a collegiate strength coach. He spent one year at the University of Nebraska ('76), his alma mater, one at Washington State University ('77) and four at the University of Missouri ('78-81). He worked with the defensive ends in addition to his strength duties at Washington State.

Redding was a three-year letter winner at Nebraska, where he played defensive end. Upon completion of his bachelor of science degree in physical education, he worked as a graduate assistant at Nebraska in '76.

Born June 14, 1952, Dave lives in Lee's Summit, Missouri, and has one daughter, Taylor Reta (7).

Redding's Coaching Career: University of Nebraska 1976; Washington State University 1977; University of Missouri 1978-81; Cleveland Browns 1982-88; joined Chiefs in 1989.

AL SAUNDERS, Assistant Head Coach/Receivers

Regarded as one of the finest offensive minds in professional football, Al Saunders begins his sixth season with the Chiefs. Saunders has served as both a head coach and offensive coordinator during his coaching career, and under his direction, Kansas City's receivers have continued to blossom.

Saunders has a knack for getting the most out of young receivers. The past two seasons, he has overseen the development of J.J. Birden and Willie Davis, who have blossomed into one of the finest receiving duos in the NFL. Last year both players finished among the AFC's Top 20 in receiving yards: Davis (909, eighth) and Birden (721, 20th). Davis had 52 catches and Birden made 51, giving the Chiefs two wide receivers with 50 or more receptions for the fisrt time since '84.

His relentless efforts and "hands on" approach should help the fledgling Chiefs receivers climb to the levels of some of his other star pupils.

Saunders has had a dramatic impact on an impressive list of offensive players since his coaching career began in '70. During his 24 years as a coach on both the college and professional levels, he has been central in the development of Charlie Joiner, Kellen Winslow, Wes Chandler, Pete Holohan, Lynn Swann, Wesley Walker, Henry Marshall, Willie Gault, Anthony Miller, Gary Anderson and Lionel James.

Saunders served as head coach of the San Diego Chargers from the midpoint of the '86 season through the '88 campaign. He guided the club to a 17-22 record, including an 8-7 record in '87, which was the team's first winning mark in five years. Under his direction in '87, the Chargers won eight straight games, the club's longest winning streak in 26 seasons.

The 47-year-old Saunders joined the Chargers in '83 as receivers coach in what was one of the most exciting and prolific pass offenses in NFL history. San Diego led the league in passing yardage in '83 and '85.

Saunders entered the NFL after 13 years as a successful college assistant coach. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Southern California in '70-71. He then coached the receivers at the University of Missouri in '72 and was the offensive backfield coach at Utah State from '73-75. He was assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at the University of California from '76-81, leading an offense that set 32 national, conference and school records. In '82 he was offensive coordinator at the University of Tennessee, where he coached standout receivers Gault and McGee.

Saunders was born in London, England, which made him only the third foreign-born head coach in NFL history. He became a naturalized U.S. citizen in '60. He was a four-year starter, team captain and an Academic All-America as a defensive back at San Jose State ('66-69) and is also enshrined in the school's Hall of Fame. He graduated with honors as a physical education and English major in '69 and obtained a master's degree in education from Stanford in '70. As recipient of California State's Graduate Fellowship for Academic Excellence, he was a doctorial candidate in athletic administration and sports management at USC. Saunders has been recognized in Who's Who in America and was awarded California's prestigious Golden State Award for community leadership and service in '89.

Saunders, a former All-American swimmer and former national record holder, competed in the 1994 Los Angeles and Boston Marathons.

Born February 1, 1947, Al and his wife, Karen, reside in Overland Park, Kansas, with their two sons, Bobby (17) and Joey (14) and daughter Korrin (13).

Saunders' Coaching Career: University of Southern California 1970-71; University of Missouri 1972; Utah State University 1973-75; University of California 1976-81; University of Tennessee 1982; San Diego Chargers 1983-88 (head coach 1986-88); joined Chiefs in 1989.

KURT SCHOTTENHEIMER, Special Teams/Tight Ends

Kurt Schottenheimer begins his sixth season as the Chiefs special teams coach and his second in charge of the team's tight ends. Since his arrival, the club has maintained its kick-blocking superiority and made impressive advances on both kickoffs and punts. In his five seasons with the team, the special teams have accounted for seven touchdowns and 21 blocked kicks.

The Chiefs special teams were sensational as usual last year. During the regular season, the club blocked five kicks, including a pair of blocked field goals that played a prominent role in a 17-14 win over San Diego. The Chiefs scored one touchdown off a blocked punt by Albert Lewis and were the beneficiary of a key blocked punt by Keith Cash in a playoff win over the Steelers. The Chiefs allowed just 8.2 yards per punt return to rank seventh in the NFL.

Schottenheimer also had a hand in the rejuvenated Chiefs offense in his first year as tight ends coach. In '93 tight ends accounted for 55 catches, good for 656 yards and five touchdowns. The 55 catches were the most by Kansas City tight ends since '76, that 656 yards were the most since '77 and the five scores were the most since '84. Those totals could go even higher in '94 with the growth of young tight ends Keith Cash and Mike Bartrum.

Schottenheimer was the co-winner of the NFL 1990 Special Teams Coach of the Year Award. Under his guidance that season, Kansas City's special teams units reached new heights. The Chiefs blocked an NFL-record six punts during the regular season and added another during the playoff loss to Miami. The club also rejected a field goal and deflected a punt. Two of the blocked punts were returned for touchdowns.

Schottenheimer, the younger brother of Chiefs head coach Marty Schottenheimer, is in his eighth season as an NFL assistant. He joined the Chiefs in '89 after spending two years as the Browns special teams coach.

A 44-year-old native of McDonald, Pennsylvania, Schottenheimer entered the pro ranks after putting together an impressive major college coaching resume. He served as Lou Holtz's linebackers coach at the University of Notre Dame in '86. Prior to that appointment, he spent two seasons ('84-85) as linebackers coach at Louisiana State University under defensive genius Bill Arnsparger.

Schottenheimer started his coaching career from '74-75 as the defensive coordinator at William Patterson State College in New Jersey. He spent the '77 season at Ridgefield Park (N.J.) High School, and the following five seasons ('78-82) at Michigan State University, the first two as a graduate assistant coaching defensive backs under Darryl Rogers. He coached the Spartans outside linebackers his last three years, with All-America pick Carl Banks, among his pupils. He coached at Tulane University in '83.

Scottenheimer was a J.C. All-America quarterback at Coffeyville (Kan.) Junior College, where he led the nation in passing as a sophomore. He moved on to the University of Miami, where he started his last two years as a defensive back and earned his bachelor's degree in education in '71.

Born October 1, 1949, Kurt and his wife Colleen, have two daughters, Steele (11) and Sloane (8), and live in Leawood, Kansas.

Schottenheimer's Coaching Career: William Patterson State College 1974-75; Michigan State University 1978-82; Tulane University 1983; Louisiana State University 1984-85; University of Notre Dame 1986; Cleveland Browns 1987-88; joined Chiefs in 1989.

DARVIN WALLIS, Special Assistant/Quality Control

Darvin Wallis, an 23-year coaching veteran, is responsible for the team's game analysis, including film breakdown, computer data, self-scouting and the analysis of opponents' offenses. Wallis is also responsible for defensive quality control and developmental studies and research. He joined the Chiefs after spending seven years in the same capacity with the Browns organization.

"Darvin is a fine, young coach and a tireless worker who watches more video than anyone in the organization," said head coach Marty Schottenheimer. "He is responsible for all phases of quality control and computer data."

The 45-year-old Ft. Branch, Indiana, native joined the Browns in '82 after tutoring the tight ends and tackles at the University of Mississippi for two seasons ('80-81). During his two seasons there he was also heavily involved in the school's computer scouting system. Wallis was the offensive line and strength coach at Tulane University from '78-79 and oversaw the offensive front at Adams State College in Alamosa, Colorado, from '76-77.

After graduating from the University of Arizona, where he played defensive end, Wallis earned his master's degree at Adams State. He entered the coaching world in '71 at Wilcox (Ariz.) High School, then served as head coach at Ajo (Ariz.) High School from '72-75.

Born February 14, 1949, Darvin and his wife, Vicky, reside in Overland Park, Kansas, with their three children, Darvin, Jr. (11), Tyson (8) and Austin (6).

Wallis' Coaching Background: Adams State College 1976-77; Tulane University 1978-79; University of Mississippi 1980-81; Cleveland Browns 1982-88; joined Chiefs in 1989.

PLAYER PERSONNEL STAFF

MARK HATLEY, Director of Pro Personnel

Mark Hatley, who has been with the Chiefssince 1987, was promoted to Director of Pro Personnel in '91. After coaching the club's linebackers for one season, he joined the team's scouting department, where he has played a vital role, especially in the procurement of pro personnel. Hatley's primary focus has been with the scounting of players with professional experience. With the new free agency system and salary cap, Hatley's expertise has become even more valuable. Hatley also scouts Chiefs opponenets during thr season. Hatley came to Kansas City after a two-year stint with the New Orleans Saints.

Hatley's first NFL experience was with the Saints in 1984-85, when his duties included scouting and defensive quality control. He moved into the pro ranks after 11 years as an assistant coach on the college level. The former Oklahoma State linebacker, following his graduation in 1972, coached three years at his alma mater. He then moved to Tulsa for one season in 1976 before spending six years at Texas Christian (1977-82). He joined the Baylor staff in 1983 for a year before landing his first NFL job with the Saints.

A 44-year-old native of Borger, Texas, Hatley and his wife, Claudia, have one daughter, Eliza, and reside in Overland Park, Kansas.

TERRY BRADWAY, Director of College Scouting

Terry Bradway, who has a diversified football background as a player, coach and scout, enters his third season in the Chiefs organization as the club's Director of College Scouting. Bradway's primary focus is readying the team for the annual NFL draft.

The 38-year-old Bradway came to Kansas City after spending five years as a full-time scout with the New York Giants. He played a key role in the personnel department that helped the Giants to a victory in Super Bowl XXV. He served as a part-time scout with the Giants following a three-year run ('83-85) as Assistant Director of Player Personnel for the USFL's Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars. During his stay in the USFL, he served under Chiefs President/General Manager Carl Peterson, who held the same title with the Stars.

Before entering the pro ranks, Bradway was an assistant coach at the United States Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, New York. Prior to that he was a graduate assistant at the University of Cincinnati. He earned a master's degree in health and physical education from Glassboro (N.J.) State. He was a three-year letter winner as a defensive back at Trenton State College, where he received a degree in health and physical education.

Bradway played prep football at Holy Sprit High School in Absecon, New Jersey. Born May 19, 1955, in Atlantic City, New Jersey, Terry and his wife, Kathleen, have two children, Michael (8) and Jennifer (5).

KEN BLAIR, Regional Scout

Ken Blair, who is in his 12th year as an NFL scout, begins his second season with the Chiefs. Last year Blair served as a pro scout, and this year he will evaluate collge talent in the southeast.

The 52-year-old Blair was in the Broncos personnel department from '85-92. He most recently covered the Atlantic Coast region for Denver. Prior to joining the Broncos, he was a member of the Philadelphia Eagles player personnel department under the direction of Lynn Stiles.

Before becoming a scout, Blair spent 20 years as a college assistant coach for three high-profile programs. From '74-82, he coached at Georgia Tech, and before that he served as an assistant at UCLA ('71-73), coaching with Carl Peterson and Lynn Stiles, and Colorado ('63-70). He was an All-Big Eight tight end and linebacker at Colorado, where he played from '60-62.

Ken and his wife, Mary Sue, reside in Lavonia, Georgia, and have two sons, Mike and Mitch.

CHUCK COOK, Regional Scout

In his 11th year as a talent scout for the Chiefs, Chuck Cook joined the club's personnel department in 1984 after a four-year coaching career on both the college and professional level. His area of concentration as a Chiefs scout is the country's south region.

Cook came to Kansas City after serving two years as an offensive assistant with the Arizona Wrangers of the USFL. He began coaching in 1980 as a graduate assistant at the University of Wyoming.

A native of Andalusia, Alabama, Cook was a wide receiver and defensive back at Southern Mississippi. He graduated in 1980, and after several tryouts in the NFL as a player, began his coaching career later that year. His father, Hamp, is a scout with the New Orleans Saints. Chuck and his wife Carla, reside in Hattiesburg, Mississippi.

CARL HAIRSTON, Pro Scout

Carl "Big Daddy" Hairston begins his first season with the Chiefs. Hairston will assist Mark Hatley in the evaluation of the players with professional experience. He will also work with the Chiefs defensive linemen during training camp.

The 41-year-old Hairston spent the past three seasons as a talent scout with the Phoenix Cardinals. He joined the Cardinals scouting deparment in '91 following a stellar 15-year career in the NFL.

Hairston appeared in 234 NFL games, including 184 starts, registering 1,141 tackles and 94 sacks as one of th league's finest defensive ends. He played with Phoenix in '90 after lengthy stays with the Cleveland Browns ('84-89) and Philadelphia Eagles ('76-83). He was a seventh-round pick of the Eagles in the '76 NFL draft, and was an eight-year starter with the club until he was traded to Cleveland. In Philadelphia, where Kansas City President/General Manager Carl Peterson was the personnel chief, Hairston surpassed 100 tackles five straight years ('77-81) and was the Eagles defensive captain his last five seasons with the club. In Cleveland, where Marty Schottenheimer was the Head Coach, he played in 92 games (75 starts), collecting 40 or more tackles in five of his six seasons.

CHIEFS RADIO NETWORK

For the fifth straight year, all Chiefs games will be carried in Kansas City by KCFX Radio/101 FM. The Chiefs Radio Network, with KCFX as its anchor, extends throughout a six-state region that includes Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Oklahoma and California. KCFX will broadcast all Chiefs preseason, regular season and playoff games live. The broadcast team will have some new blood in 1994 as respected broadcaster Mitch Holthus takes over the play-by-play duties. Holthus, who has been the play-by-play voice of Kansas State athletics the past decade, is not a total newcomer to Chiefs broadcasts -- he called the action for the 1991 season opener against the Atlanta Falcons. Adding the color analysis is Hall of Fame quarterback Len Dawson, the Chiefs all-time leading passer. Bill Grigsby, who has been on the Chiefs broadcast team since the club's first year in Kansas City, will also provide expert commentary. Bob Gretz, sports director at KCFX, will add pre-game and post-game comments for the fifth straight season.

JOHN ALT • 76

Tackle Ht: 6-8 Wt: 307

How Acquired: Draft (No. 1b - 1984)
College: Iowa
NFL Experience: 11
Birthdate: May 30, 1962
Birthplace: Stuttgart, Germany
Residence: White Bear Lake, Minnesota

Pro Career: Recognized as one of the NFL's finest left tackles, earning a Pro Bowl trip each of the past two years and All-AFC first team honors the past four seasons . . . Was a first team All-NFL choice in both '90-91 . . . Durable performer combines size, strength and intellect as well as any offensive lineman in the league . . . Always considered a top-notch pass protector, he has become a dominant run blocker . . . Has started all 16 games at left tackle for five years running . . . Incredibly, he has started all but one of the last 103 games and 85 straight . . . Continually lines up against the NFL's best pass rushers with unparalleled success . . . Behind his steady play in '90-91, the Chiefs allowed just 43 sacks, the third-fewest in the league . . . Has been Kansas City's primary starter at left tackle for the past seven seasons after backing up the position his first three years in the league . . . Has been injury-free for the past five seasons after battling various injuries his first five pro seasons . . . Missed 12 games in '85 and '86 with a back injury and another five contests in '87 and '88 with various injuries to both knees . . . Has played in more games with the Chiefs than all but six other offensive linemen in team history: Jim Tyrer (180), Jack Rudnay (178), Ed Budde (176), Dave Hill (149), Tom Condon (147) and Rich Baldinger (139). 1993: Got richly-deserved second trip to the Pro Bowl after playing in the game the year before as an injury replacement . . . Was a first team All-AFC choice by Football News . . . Enjoyed, perhaps, the finest season of his pro career . . . Started all 16 games at left tackle for the fifth year in a row and extended his streak of continuous starts to 85 . . . Missed very few snaps, although he was sidelined for part of the Houston game (9/12) with a back injury, a portion of a San Diego outing (10/17) with a knee injury, and part of the Vikings game (12/26) with an ankle injury . . . Started all three of the club's playoff contests. 1992: Started all 16 games at left tackle for the fourth year in a row . . . Also opened the San Diego playoff game at left tackle . . . Made first Pro Bowl appearance as an injury replacement . . . Was first Chiefs offensive lineman to play in the game since center Jack Rudnay in '77 . . . Was one of three K.C. offensive linemen to start every game . . . Missed most of training camp and the first two preseason outings with a knee injury. 1991: Was a first team All-NFL selection by Sports Illustrated and was an All-AFC pick by UPI and Football News . . . Started all 16 regular season games and both postseason affairs at left tackle . . . Helped Christian Okoye get his second 1,000-yard season . . . Part of an offensive front that yielded just 21 sacks, the fewest in the AFC and third-fewest in the NFL. 1990: Was a first team All-NFL selection of The Sporting News, USA Today and Sports Illustrated . . . Was an All-AFC selection of UPI for the second straight year . . . Started all 16 games at left tackle . . . Helped Chiefs become only team in '90 to have two rushers with at least 800 yards (Barry Word had 1,015 and Christian Okoye had 805) . . . Offensive line allowed just 22 sacks, the fourth-lowest total in the league. 1989: Earned second team All-AFC honors from AP . . . Stayed away from injuries as the team's starter at left tackle in all 16 contests . . . Marked the first time in his career he had started all 16 games . . . Was a powerful force on a line that generated 132.9 rushing yards per game, the fourth-highest average in the league, and allowed just 23 sacks, the third-lowest number in the league. 1988: Played in 14 games with 13 starts at left tackle . . . Missed L.A. Raiders (10/30) and Broncos (11/6) games and did not start vs. Bengals (11/13) because of left knee sprain . . . Missed three preseason games after undergoing arthroscopic surgery on left knee on July 29 . . . Was used as third tight end in short-yardage and goal-line situations. 1987: Was the club's most productive offensive lineman in '87 until knee injury vs. Cincinnati (12/6) . . . Started all nine games he played in . . . Underwent right knee surgery in off-season . . . Was a full-time starter at left tackle for first time in his career. 1986: Played in the final seven contests after coming off "physically-unable-to-perform" list . . . Role was limited to special teams and backup duty at left tackle . . . Also played in Wild Card playoff game. 1985: Played in the first 13 games before the disc injury was diagnosed following Week 13 game vs. Seattle (12/1) . . . Spent final three games on injured reserve list . . . Started six games in the middle of that season when starter Matt Herkenhoff was injured . . . STEVE BONO • 13

Quarterback Ht: 6-4 Wt: 215

How Acquired: Trade (San Francisco-1994)
College: UCLA
NFL Experience: 10 (1st with Chiefs)
Birthdate: June 11, 1962
Birthplace: Norristown, Pennsylvania
Residence: Palo Alto, California

Pro Career: Kansas City added to its depth at quarterback by trading a future draft choice to San Francisco for Bono on May 2 of this year . . . Said Chiefs President/GM Carl Peterson: "We are very pleased to acquire a player of Steve's experience and success in the offense the Chiefs run. The obvious is that this acquisition gives the Chiefs added insurance at the very important quarterback position." . . . Begins his 10th NFL season with the Chiefs after logging five years with the 49ers ('89-93), two with the Steelers ('87-88) and two with the Vikings ('85-86) . . . Has played in 40 career games, including nine starts, completing 266 of 479 passes (55.5%) for 3,114 yards with 20 touchdowns and just 11 interceptions . . . Originally entered the NFL as a sixth-round pick (142nd overall) of Minnesota in the '85 draft . . . At San Francisco (1989-93): The past five seasons, he served as a backup to Joe Montana and Steve Young, the two highest-rated quarterbacks in the history of the NFL . . . During his five-year stay with San Francisco, he played in 33 games (six starts), hitting on 220 of 359 passes (61.3%) for 2,558 yards with 14 touchdowns and seven INTs, good for a superb 88.0 passer rating . . . In his six starts, the 49ers had a 5-1 record . . . Was signed by the 49ers as a free agent on June 13 of '89 after being released by Pittsburgh in April of that year. 1993: Saw action in eight games, completing 39 of 61 passes (63.9%) for 416 yards with no touchdowns and one INT . . . Served as a backup to Steve Young, who was the league's highest-rated passer in '93 . . . In the regular season finale vs. Philadelphia (1/3/94), a 37-34 Eagles win, he replaced Young late in the third quarter and engineered two scoring drives while establishing season highs in pass attempts (29), completions (18) and yards (219) . . . In that game he scored his first touchdown since '87 on a one-yard run . . . In San Francisco's 44-3 playoff win over the Giants (1/15/94), he completed both of his pass attempts for 15 yards. 1992: Served as Steve Young's backup, appearing in 15 games, primarily as a holder on placements . . . Completed 36 of 56 passes (64.3%) for 463 yards with two touchdowns and two INTs . . . Relieved Young, who suffered a concussion in the first quarter, at N.Y. Giants (9/6) and tossed a pair of touchdown passes to Tom Rathman . . . Replaced Young in five other games during the regular season . . . Replaced Young (flu) at the beginning of the third series vs. Phoenix (11/1) and hit on 17 of 24 passes for 222 yards with an INT . . . Played in both of San Francisco's playoff contests as a holder. 1991: Enjoyed his finest season as a pro, starting six of nine games . . . Finished the year as the NFL's fourth-highest-rated passer . . . Completed 141 of 237 passes (59.5%) for 1,617 yards with 11 touchdowns and four interceptions, good for an 88.5 passer rating . . . Had a string of three straight games in which he threw three touchdown passes, including a 28-14 victory over the Chiefs (12/14), when he was 24-of-33 for 220 yards . . . Had a pair of 300-yard passing days, getting 306 with a touchdown vs. L.A. Rams (11/25) and a career-high 347 with three scoring passes in a comeback victory over New Orleans (12/1) . . . Named NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Saints . . . Dressed but did not play in six of the first eight weeks . . . Replaced Steve Young (knee injury) in second half at Atlanta (11/3) and started the next six games (49ers were 5-1) . . . Threw a game-winning 15-yard TD pass to John Taylor with 1:08 remaining to lead a come-from-behind win at Seattle (12/8) . . . Suffered a knee injury in the Kansas City game and was replaced by Young. 1990: Did not play in any games as the third-string quarterback behind Joe Montana and Steve Young . . . Did dress five times. 1989: Signed by the 49ers as a free agent on June 13 . . . Saw action in one game, against N.Y. Jets (10/29), completing four of five passes for 62 yards and a touchdown (45 yards to Jerry Rice) . . . Was inactive during the 49ers playoff run to a victory in Super Bowl XXIV. At Pittsburgh (1987-88): Played in five games as a member of the Steelers from '87-88, completing 45 of 109 passes (41.3%) for 548 yards with seven touchdowns and four INTs . . . Originally signed by Pittsburgh on March 25 of '87, was waived and re-signed as replacement player during the '87 strike. 1988: Served as a backup to Bubby Brister and Todd Blackledge . . . Played in two games, attempting 35 passes with 10 completions (28.6%) for 110 yards with one touchdown and two INTs. 1987: Was signed as a free agent on March 25, released on September 7 and re-signed as a replacement player on September 24 . . . Started all three replacements games, completing 34 of 74 passes (45.9%) for 438 yards with five touchdowns and two INTs . . . The Steelers were 2-1 in the three games . . . In first career start vs. Atlanta (10/4), he threw his first TD pass and rushed for his first score . . . Against Indianapolis (10/18), he threw a one-yard TD pass to John Stallworth for the 500th reception of the wide receiver's career. At Minnesota (1985-86): Selected by the Vikings in the sixth round of the '85 draft and appeared in just two games with the clubs over two seasons . . . Was two-of-11 for eight yards. 1986: Was released by Minnesota on Oct. 4, then re-signed on Nov. 9, before being let go for good on Dec. 9 . . . Attempted one pass, a three-yard completion, in one game (Tampa Bay, 11/30). 1985: Minnesota's sixth-round draft choice saw action in one outing (Philadelphia, 12/1), when he hit on one of 10 passes for five yards.

College/Personal: Finished his college career at UCLA, ranked seventh (is now 10th) on the school's all-time passing yardage list with 2,165 . . . Completed 177 of 315 passes (56.2%) with 12 touchdowns . . . As a senior in '84, he was 136-245 for 1,576 yards and nine touchdowns for a 9-3 Bruins squad that won the Fiesta Bowl and ranked ninth in the nation . . . Missed three games his senior year with an ankle injury . . . Established then-school records with 400 yards in total offense and 399 passing yards in his first college start as a junior vs. BYU (10/1/83); Steve Young posted 324 yards of total offense in that game . . . Won four letters in football and one in baseball as a catcher at UCLA . . . Earned All-America honors in football and baseball, while lettering in basketball, at Norristown (Pa.) High School . . . Participated in the '93 AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am Golf Tournament . . . Full name: Steven Christopher Bono . . . Married, wife Tina, one son, Christoph Biaggio (2).

How Acquired: Draft (No. 1 - 1992)
College: Tennessee
NFL Experience: 3
Birthdate: November 28, 1969
Birthplace: Covington, Georgia
Residence: Overland Park, Kansas

Pro Career: Is already one of the most exciting players to ever slip on a Chiefs uniform . . . Has established himself as one of the NFL's most dangerous return men as he continues to mature into a top defender at cornerback . . . Took over Kansas City's starting left cornerback position midway through last season after serving as a nickel back and backup corner . . . Has eight interceptions in his two NFL seasons, tying Charles Mincy for the team lead in '92-93 . . . In 31 games (20 starts), he has also contributed 113 tackles (82 solos) and 27 pass deflections (leads team last two seasons) . . . Has returned 65 punts for an impressive 9.9-yard average and two touchdowns (46 and 86 yards) . . . Has brought back 11 kickoffs for a 17.3-yard average . . . Was a consensus all-rookie selection in '92, while also winning the prestigious Bert Bell Trophy as the NFL Rookie of the Year . . . Scored a touchdown the very first time he touched a ball in an NFL game (46-yard punt return) . . . Selected by Kansas City in the first round (20th overall pick) in the '92 draft. 1993: Became a full-time starter at right cornerback, starting 11 of 16 games . . . Missed the season finale and all three playoff games after suffering a broken forearm at Minnesota (12/26) . . . Started the first three games of the year at left CB when Albert Lewis was out with a broken forearm, served as a backup the next four contests, then opened the next eight games when Kevin Ross was moved to free safety . . . Was eighth on the club with 58 tackles (43 solos) . . . Added 12 pass deflections (second on team), one interception and one forced fumble . . . Made lone interception of the season in win over Buffalo (11/28) . . . Made at least five tackles in seven games . . . Climbed ahead of John Hadl (244), Dan Fouts (254) and Sonny Jurgensen (255) for fourth on the NFL's all-time passing TD list with 257 . . . Moved ahead of Hadl (4,687) into seventh place in the all-time pass attempts list with 4,898. Game 1: Began his Chiefs career in grand fashion, tossing three TD passes in a 27-3 win at Tampa Bay (9/5) . . . Completed 14 of 21 passes for 246 yards before leaving the game at the end of the third quarter with a sprained right wrist . . . Engineered 17 second-quarter points, firing his first TD pass as a Chief to WR Willie Davis (19 yards) and then another for 50 yards to WR J.J. Birden . . . Was 11-of-15 for 193 yards and two scores in the first half . . . Got his third TD pass of the day midway through the third frame, hitting RB Marcus Allen on a swing pass, good for a 12-yard TD . . . Montana's injury occurred on the play prior to the Allen TD . . . Named AFC Offensive Player of the Week. Game 2: In a 30-0 loss at Houston (9/12), he dressed but did not play because of the wrist injury. Game 3: Returned to action for 15-7, Monday Night victory over Denver (9/20) in his first regular season appearance in Arrowhead as a Chief . . . Completed 21 of 36 passes for 273 yards with no TDs or INTs . . . Also had three carries for a season-high 25 yards. Game 4: Played about a quarter and a half in a 24-9 win over the L.A. Raiders (10/3) . . . Suffered a pulled hamstring on a four-yard scramble midway through the second frame and did not return . . . Prior to the injury, he had completed seven of nine passes for 68 yards and two TDs (one-yard to T Joe Valerio and 15 yards to Davis). Game 5: Was listed as inactive vs. Cincinnati (10/10) with the hamstring injury. Game 6: Was back in action at San Diego (10/17) and by the game's end, he had engineered his 27th career fourth-quarter comeback, leading KC to a thrilling 17-14 victory . . . Was accurate on 21 of 39 aerials for a season-high 284 yards with one TD and one INT . . . Down, 14-10, with just over two minutes remaining and staring at fourth-and-10, he completed a 12-yard pass to Davis; two Allen runs later, KC was up 17-14 . . . Fired a 15-yard scoring strike to Allen in the first quarter for his 250th career TD pass . . . Also moved into seventh place on the NFL's all-time pass attempts list, bypassing Hadl (4,687) . . . Named AFC Offensive Player of the Week. Game 7: Suffered his most serious injury of the year at Miami (10/31), when he strained his hamstring on an eight-yard pass completion to TE Keith Cash with 4:46 left in the first half . . . Before leaving the game, he was 10-of-17 for 90 yards . . . Chiefs lost the game, 30-10 . . . In the contest, he became the fourth QB in NFL history to record 3,00 pass completions, getting it on a 20-yard pass to Birden three plays before the injury. Games 8,9 & 10: Was inactive vs. Green Bay (11/8), at L.A. Raiders (11/14) and vs. Chicago (11/21) with the hamstring injury. Game 11: Saw his first action in a month as the Chiefs pounded Buffalo (11/28) by a score of 23-7 . . . Hit on 18 of 32 attempts for 208 yards with two TDs (18 yards to Allen and one yard to Cash) and one INT . . . Named AFC Offensive Player of the Week. Game 12: Completed 20 of 30 throws for 239 yards in 31-16 victory at Seattle (12/15). Game 13: In one of the most dramatic games of the NFL regular season, he was 17-of-30 for 237 yards with two TDs and one INT in a 27-21 loss at Denver (12/12) . . . His two TD passes (11 yards to TE Jonathan Hayes and 29 yards to Davis) gave him 254 for his career, tying him with Fouts for the fifth-most in league history. Game 14: In a 28-24 win over the Chargers (12/19), he was true on 18 of 32 passes for 168 yards with two TDs (nine yards to Davis and 14 to Birden) and one INT . . . Chiefs were down 17-0 in the game, and by erasing the 17-point deficit, the club had its biggest comeback since 10/25/81 . . . Exited the game with a minor concussion (that resolved itself) at the end of the third quarter, missed two series, and returned in the final 5:27 of the game . . . Moved ahead of Fouts (254) and Jurgensen (255) for sole possession of fourth place on the league's all-time passing TD chart. Game 16: In a 34-24, regular-season-ending win over Seattle

(1/2/94), he hit on 18 of 28 passes for 210 yards with one TD and one INT . . . TD was a 14-yard pass to Davis. AFC Wild Card Game: Commandered another patented, fourth-quarter comeback as the Chiefs wiped out a 17-10 Steeler advantage to win a 27-24 thriller in overtime . . . In the 1/8/94 affair at Arrowhead, he completed 28 of 43 passes for 276 yards with one TD and no INTs . . . Fired a seven-yard TD pass to WR Tim Barnett with 1:43 remaining in the game, on fourth-and-goal, and with the Chiefs trailing 24-17 . . . With the game-time temperature at 25° and wind chill at 18°, Montana wore gloves to start the game and misfired on his first seven pass attempts . . . Discarded the gloves, but was still just six-of-15 for 73 yards in the first half . . . In fourth quarter and OT, he completed 15 of 19 passes (78.9%) for 152 yards and a TD . . . It was his 28th career fourth-quarter comeback and his fourth in the playoffs . . . Was shaken up by a first-quarter hit and missed one series (backup QB Dave Krieg tossed a TD pass in his absence). AFC Divisional Playoff Game: "Montana Magic" reappeared at the Astrodome as the Chiefs upset the heavily-favored Oilers (1/16/94) by the count of 28-20 in an AFC Divisional Playoff Game . . . Things looked bleak after Montana was intercepted at the KC 25-yard line with 11:36 left in the contest and the Oilers up , 10-7 . . . Chiefs defense limited Houston to a field goal, then cleared the stage for another Montana miracle show . . . KC scored 21 points in the last nine minutes as Montana hurled TD strikes to Birden (11 yards) and Davis (18 yards) . . . Also had a third-quarter TD pass of seven yards to Cash . . . Was 22-of-39 for 299 yards with three TDs and two INTs . . . Was brilliant in the second half, hitting on 13 of 19 passes for 212 yards and three scores . . . It was his 29th career fourth-quarter comeback, his fifth in postseason play and second in as many weeks . . . Named AFC Offensive Player of the Week. AFC Championship Game: It was his seventh conference title game appearance as the Chiefs dropped a 30-13 decision to the Bills at Rich Stadium on 1/23/94 . . . Completed nine of 23 passes for 125 yards with one INT before leaving the game with a concussion . . . Took a hit early in the third quarter on a 17-yard pass to Cash with the Chiefs trailing, 20-6, and did not return. 1992: Made a dramatic comeback after missing 31 straight games to play in the regular season finale vs. Detroit (12/28) . . . NEIL SMITH • 90

Defensive End Ht: 6-4 Wt: 273

How Acquired: Draft (No. 1 - 1988)
College: Nebraska
NFL Experience: 7
Birthdate: April 10, 1966
Birthplace: New Orleans, Louisiana
Residence: Blue Springs, Missouri

Pro Career: Has matured into one of the NFL's finest defensive players, both as a pass rusher and run stopper . . . Big-play maker has a flair for creating momentum-changing plays . . . Hard worker has been rewarded for his unwavering efforts with three straight Pro Bowl appearances, the NFL sack crown and All-NFL accolades in '93, and Chiefs MVP honors in '92 . . . After suffering through a disappointing rookie season in '88, Smith has flourished under Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer and defensive line coach Tom Pratt . . . Since '89, he has registered 332 tackles (66.4 per season), 54½ sacks (10.9 per season), 17 forced fumbles and 11 fumble recoveries . . . Says Schottenheimer, "The big contributing factor to Neil's success has been maturity. Under Tom Pratt's guidance, he has developed an understanding of the importance of details, and preparing yourself as a player. Because of the balance of his game as both a run defender and pass rusher, he has the opportunity to become one of the very best in this league. More importantly, he wants to be the best." . . . Led the NFL in sacks last season with 15, becoming the second Chief in four years (Derrick Thomas in '90) to do so . . . The 15 sacks are the second-most ever by a Chief (Thomas, 20 in '90) . . . He and Denver's Simon Fletcher each have 29½ sacks in '92-93 to lead the NFL . . . His 37½ sacks from '91-93 rank fourth in the league behind Fletcher (43), Reggie White (42) and Leslie O'Neal (38) . . . Has 11 multiple-sack games, including a career-high four in a '93 game vs. L.A. Raiders and two three-sack performances . . . Durable performer has played in 74 straight regular season games . . . Is the third-leading sacker in Kansas City history with 57 (Art Still - 72½ & Thomas - 66) . . . Uses massive wing span of seven-feet, 1½ inches to disrupt passing lanes and force fumbles . . . The past five seasons, he has batted down 20 passes and made two interceptions while causing 17 fumbes . . . Has the speed and agility to get around offensive tackles with the strength and leverage to shed blockers . . . Has been the Chiefs starting right defensive end the past five seasons after sharing the job as a rookie . . . Entered the NFL as the second overall pick (behind former Falcon and current Raider Aundray Bruce) in the '88 draft . . . Career log reads 92 games (84 starts), 385 tackles (278 solos), 57 sacks, 18 forced fumbles, 11 fumble recoveries, two interceptions, two touchdowns and two blocked field goals . . . In seven playoff games (all starts), he has amassed 40 tackles (32 solos), 5½ sacks, three forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. 1993: Led NFL with 15 sacks, the second-most ever by a Chief (Derrick Thomas, 20 in '90) . . . How Acquired: Draft (No. 1 - 1989)
College: Alabama
NFL Experience: 6
Birthdate: January 1, 1967
Birthplace: Miami, Florida
Residence: Independence, Missouri

Pro Career: In just five seasons, he has developed into the most feared pass rusher in the NFL . . . Regarded by many to be the best linebacker in the league . . . Has started the past five Pro Bowls as the AFC's top vote-getter at outside linebacker each year . . . Played "rush backer" position in '93, but will return to a more traditional outside linebacker spot in '94 . . . Is Kansas City's second all-time sacker with 66 (Art Still, 72½) . . . Since '90, he and Green Bay's Reggie White share the NFL sack lead with 56 apiece . . . His 66 sacks since entering the league in '89 are second only to White's total of 67 (Atlanta's Chris Doleman and Denver's Simon Fletcher also have 66) . . . Got his 50th career sack vs. Dallas (10/18/92), reaching that milestone in his 54th game, quicker than any linebacker ever did and faster than all but two players in league history (White-40 & Mark Gastineau-43) . . . Has been nearly unstoppable the past four seasons, racking up a league-high 56 sacks, 22 forced fumbles and 10 fumble recoveries, including three for touchdowns . . . Has three career games with four or more sacks, seven with three or more, and 14 with two-plus sacks . . . Has perfected the art of stripping the ball as evidenced by his 25 career regular season forced fumbles plus four more in the playoffs . . . Is the NFL record holder for most sacks in a game with seven vs. Seattle (11/11/90), breaking the old record of six by San Francisco's Fred Dean (11/13/83) . . . In '90, he became the first Chief to lead the NFL in sacks with 20 . . . His 20 sacks in '90 set a team record and are the fifth-highest, single-season total in league history . . . His 66 sacks have accounted for 520½ yards in losses . . . Has made 327 tackles, including 249 solo stops . . . 45½ of his 66 career sacks have come at Arrowhead, and all but 10½ of his sacks have come on artificial turf . . . Career log reads 79 games (77 starts), 327 tackles, 66 sacks, 25 forced fumbles, 11 fumble recoveries, a blocked PAT, a tackled punter and three touchdowns . . . In seven playoff outings (all starts), he has 23 tackles, 6½ sacks and four forced fumbles. 1993: Assumed new "rush backer" position and played it well enough to land his fifth straight Pro Bowl nod . . . Earned one of pro sports most prestigious awards by being named the Edge NFL Man of the Year, which recognizes both community service and on-field performance . . . Was a second team All-NFL pick by AP and College & Pro Football Newsweekly . . . Named to All-AFC squad by UPI . . . Improved his play against the run as the team allowed just 101.3 rushing yards per game, the club's lowest yield since '71 (95.5) . . . Had a career-low eight sacks as teammate Neil Smith topped the league with 15 . . . Also added 43 tackles, four forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, a team-high 47 quarterback pressures and a blocked PAT . . . Returned his fumble recovery 86 yards for a touchdown at Seattle (12/5) . . . Had three tackles, two sacks and two forced fumbles vs. L.A. Raiders (10/3) . . . Was outstanding in the playoffs, recording 10 tackles, three sacks, and three forced fumbles . . . Racked up three tackles, two sacks, two forced fumbles and deflected a pass in upset win over Houston (1/16/94) in an AFC Divisional Playoff Game. 1992: Selected to start for the AFC in the Pro Bowl for the fourth year in a row . . . Was a first team All-NFL pick by NEA and The Sporting News, and named All-AFC by UPI, Pro Football Weekly and Football News . . . Made the All-Madden Team for the first time as well . . . His 14½ sacks, second-highest total of his career, led the team for the fourth straight year (Neil Smith also had 14½) . . . That total tied for the second-most ever by a Chief, and third-most in AFC/sixth-most in NFL in '92 . . . Also contributed 67 tackles, the sixth-most on the club, a team-leading eight forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries, including one for a touchdown, 27 QB pressures, and two deflected passes . . . Had one four-sack effort (Chargers, 11/8) and two three-sack games (Eagles, 10/11, and Broncos, 12/27) . . . Against San Diego (11/8), he had four sacks, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery in the first half alone of a 16-14 victory en route to AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors . . . Put on another brilliant exhibition in the season finale vs. Denver (12/27), when he had five tackles, three sacks, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery for a touchdown; also hit John Elway as he was throwing, forcing an errant pass that was intercepted and returned for another touchdown . . . Had a strong playoff showing at San Diego (1/2/93) with three tackles and 1½ sacks. 1991: Continued impressive run through NFL offenses, earning his third straight Pro Bowl start . . . Named All-NFL by AP, The Sporting News, College and Pro Football Weekly, and Pro Football Weekly . . . Took home unanimous All-AFC honors . . . His 13½ sacks led the club for the third straight year and tied for second in the AFC (with Simon Feltcher and behind William Fuller) and fourth in the NFL (behind Swilling, Fuller and Reggie White) . . . Has a knack for being around the ball as evidenced by his four forced fumbles and four recoveries, including one returned 23 yards for the winning touchdown in a 27-20 victory over the L.A. Rams (11/10) . . . It was his first NFL score . . . Was sixth on the club with a career-high 79 tackles, and second on the team with 43 quarterback pressures; also knocked down two passes . . . Tackled a punter before a kick vs. Denver (11/17) . . . His four-sack, two-forced fumble effort on Buffalo's Jim Kelly (10/7) earned him AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors . . . Made three sacks in tough 24-20 loss to Denver (11/17) . . . Collected a pair of sacks in 19-6 win at Seattle (12/1) . . . Had two sacks and a forced fumble in the playoffs . . . Missed more than half of the Chiefs home playoff victory over the L.A. Raiders (12/28) after experiencing an increased heart rate. He was hospitalized for treatment and observation for the increased heart rate which was diagnosed as atrial fibrillation. He was released from St. Luke's Hospital less than 24 hours after being admitted . . . Returned to action the following week in the club's playoff loss to Buffalo (1/5/92) and added a sack. 1990: Had simply miraculous sophomore NFL season, earning second Pro Bowl appearance and All-NFL recognition . . . Named first team All-NFL by Pro Football Writers Association, AP, Pro Football Weekly, The Sporting News, NEA, College & Pro Football Newsweekly and Football Digest and first team All-AFC by UPI . . . Led NFL with 20 sacks, a team record and the fifth-highest total in league history . . . Only players with more sacks in a season are Mark Gastineau (22 in '84), Reggie White (21 in '87), Chris Doleman (21 in '89) and Lawrence Taylor (20½ in '86) . . . Established a new NFL record with seven sacks in a game on Seattle's Dave Krieg (11/11), breaking Fred Dean's old mark of six . . . Had eighth sack in grasp on final play of game, but Krieg got free and launched a touchdown pass to beat Kansas City, 17-16 . . . Was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week (10) despite loss . . . Forced a team-leading six fumbles during the season, recovering two . . . Made 63 tackles, including 47 solos . . . Also had five pass deflections and 35 quarterback pressures . . . Had three sacks at Indianapolis (10/7) and two each vs. Cleveland (9/30) and Denver (12/9) . . . Made three solo stops in Miami playoff game (1/5/91). 1989: Became a dominant force on the Chiefs defense in first NFL season . . . Sid Gillman.

He brought technique to the trenches.

He could read a game film like a doctor reads an X-ray.

He shaped plays, players and the game we know today.

Sprint.

Brought the first and only all-digital fiber optic network to the U.S.

Made videoconferencing accessible to virtually everyone.

Shaped the world of telecommunications we know today.

Sprint.

Be there now.

Tight end Keith Cash, who has a twin brother that plays the same position for the Indianapolis Colts, was the star of the 1993 playoffs, catching a team-high 17 passes for 223 yards and one touchdown. He also blocked a fourth-quarter punt against his old team—the Pittsburgh Steelers—that played a major role in a Wild Card victory.

CHIEFS HISTORY

1959 — Lamar Hunt established and organized the American Football League with six original cities — Dallas, New York, Houston, Denver, Los Angeles and Minneapolis (Buffalo and Boston were added and Oakland replaced Minneapolis). "Before there was a player, coach or general manager in the league, there was Lamar Hunt," said Boston's Billy Sullivan. "Hunt was the cornerstone, the integrity of the league. Without him, there would have been no AFL." An unknown assistant at Miami (Florida), Hank Stram, was hired by Hunt to coach the club.

1960 — For their inaugural season in the Cotton Bowl, the Texans had a strong home-state identity with quarterback Cotton Davidson (Baylor), fullback Jack Spikes (Texas Christian) and running back Abner Haynes (North Texas State). Haynes led the league in rushing with 875 yards and touchdowns with nine. The Texans had a flashy, high scoring club, and only three close losses kept them from challenging for the division title. The Texans averaged 24,500 for their home games, the highest average in the league.

1961 — The Texans and the NFL's Dallas Cowboys both drafted E.J. Holub, described by many scouts as "the best football player in America." Holub decided to play for the Texans, joining three future Chiefs Hall of Famers – Jerry Mays, Fred Arbanas and Jim Tyrer.

1962 — Stram brought in quarterback Len Dawson, who spent six uneventful years in the NFL, to quarterback the club. Another key addition was Kansas running back Curtis McClinton. Haynes enjoyed his finest season with 1,049 yards and an AFL-high 13 touchdowns. The Texans clinched the Western Division championship in November and finished with an 11-3 record. AFL writers voted Dawson, who threw 29 touchdown passes, player of the year, and Stram coach of the year. Dallas won the AFL Championship on December 23 when Tommy Brooker connected on a 25-yard field goal during the second overtime of the title game, giving the Texans a 20-17 victory over the Houston Oilers.

1963 — On May 14, Hunt announced he was moving the franchise to Kansas City and renaming it the Chiefs. H. Roe Bartle, Kansas City's mayor nicknamed "Chief," promised to enlarge Municipal Stadium and guaranteed Hunt three times as many season ticket sales as the Texans had in Dallas. Rookie Stone Johnson suffered a fatal injury in a preseason game and his jersey number 33 was subsequently retired. Kansas City opened the regular season with a 59-7 victory over Denver, but managed just one win and two ties in its next nine games. Three highly-touted rookies, Buck Buchanan, Ed Budde and Bobby Bell, became starters on their way to a combined 526 games with the team.

1964 — The Chiefs struggled to a 7-7 record as many of the team's best players, including Curtis McClinton, E.J. Holub, Fred Arbanas and Johnny Robinson, missed several games with injuries. An average of just 18,126 fans attended each home game, prompting discussion at the AFL owners' meeting about the Chiefs future in Kansas City.

1965 — The Chiefs made Kansas star Gale Sayers their first-round draft pick, but lost him in a bidding war with the Chicago Bears. The Chiefs were able to nab wide receiver Otis Taylor from Prairie View, while Mack Lee Hill, a virtually unknown free agent running back, muscled his way into the starting lineup. In a relatively routine knee surgery late in the season, Hill died on the operating table. The club finished with a 7-5-2 record with three losses by a field goal or less.

1966 — The Chiefs signed Heisman Trophy winner Mike Garrett from USC, even though he was drafted by his hometown Los Angeles Rams of the NFL. On August 23, the Chiefs and Chicago Bears played a preseason game in the first contest between AFL and NFL teams. The Chiefs throttled the Bears, 66-24, at Municipal Stadium. A crowd of 43,885, the largest ever to witness a sports event in Kansas City, turned out for the home opener against the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills. The Chiefs dropped a 29-14 decision to the Bills, but, after the contest, Stram and Buffalo head coach Joe Collier negotiated a trade in the middle of the field. Kansas City got kicker Mike Mercer for a fifth-round pick, solidifying one of the few weaknesses on the squad. Garrett earned AFL Rookie of the Year honors, rushing for 801 yards with a lofty 5.5 yards-per-carry average. Dawson led the league in passing as the Chiefs finished three games in front of Oakland for the Western Division title.

1967 — Using a dazzling I-formation offense and a smothering defense, the Chiefs dominated the Bills in Buffalo, 31-7, on New Year's Day to win the franchise's second AFL crown and a place in the first AFL-NFL World Championship Game, later renamed Super Bowl I. On January 15 at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, the Chiefs met Vince Lombardi's powerful Green Bay Packers. The Chiefs played the Packers close for a half, trailing 14-10, but Green Bay took control in the final two quarters, winning the game by a score of 35-10. The Chiefs looked to the draft to strengthen their defense and found a pair of linebacking gems in Willie Lanier from Morgan State and Jim Lynch from Notre Dame. The club's special teams also got a boost with the addition of kicker Jan Stenerud and return man Noland (Super Gnat) Smith. Interest in the team skyrocketed, forcing an increase in seating capacity at Municipal Stadium from 40,000 to 47,000. Later in the year, Jackson County voters approved a $43 million bond issue for construction of a sports complex. Injuries again hit the club hard as the Chiefs clawed their way to a 9-5 record.

1968 — Dawson led the AFL in passing for the fourth time as the Chiefs finished the year with a 12-2 record and tie with the Raiders for the Western Division championship. In the league's title game, Oakland easily defeated Kansas City, 41-6, to advance to the AFL Championship Game against the New York Jets.

1969 — The Chiefs opened the season with impressive wins over San Diego and Boston, but lost Dawson with a knee injury. The next week, backup Jacky Lee went down with a broken ankle, leaving the team's most crucial position in the hands of two-year pro Mike Livingston, who engineered a seven-game win streak. Two months into the campaign, Dawson returned, helping the Chiefs to an 11-3 record, good for second in the division behind Oakland, who was 12-1-1. In the first round of the playoffs, Kansas City rode its dominating defense to upend Super Bowl champion New York Jets, 13-6, while Oakland pounded Houston, 56-7.

1970 — On January 4, the Chiefs defeated the Raiders, 17-7, to capture the AFL crown. It was the final game in AFL history, as the Chiefs became the league's only three-time champions. The biggest moment in Kansas City sports history came to a peak as the Chiefs became World Champions by turning back the Minnesota Vikings, by a score of 23-7, in Super Bowl IV. The Chiefs used the game as a crusade for the America Football League, and wore patches on their jerseys saying "AFL-10," which referred to the league's 10-year existence. The following season would see the AFL merge with the NFL. Oddsmakers established the Vikings as two-touchdown favorites, yet the Chiefs used three Stenerud field goals and a Garrett touchdown run to take a 16-0 halftime lead. A dynamic 46-yard touchdown pass from Dawson to Taylor in the third quarter sealed the victory. Dawson was named the game's Most Valuable Player. Despite injuries to key players and the trade of Garrett to the Chargers, the Chiefs finished the year with a 7-3-2 record, but did not qualify for the playoffs.

1971 — Taylor led the NFL in receiving yards with 1,110 and Ed Podolak became the team's top rusher. The linebacking trio of Lanier, Bell and Lynch was the league's best. In the season's next-to-last game with the Raiders, a late field goal by Stenerud gave the Chiefs a 16-14 victory and a Western Division title. The team finished with a 10-3-1 mark, one-and-a-half games ahead of Oakland. Kansas City and Miami hooked up for one of pro football's most memorable games on Christmas Day in the first round of the playoffs. The Eastern Division champion Dolphins won a dramatic double-overtime thriller, 27-24, in the longest game in NFL history. Podolak accounted for an incredible 350 yards on rushes, receptions and returns. It would be the last game played in Municipal Stadium.

1972 — Chiefs founder Lamar Hunt became the first AFL figure to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29 in Canton, Ohio. All pro-safety Johnny Robinson retires and Dawson ends speculation about his retirement by signing a two-year contract. The Chiefs open play in Arrowhead Stadium, one of the most magnificient facilities in pro sports. The largest crowd in Chiefs history, 82,094, watched the home team defeat the Raiders, 27-14, on November 5. The Chiefs got off to a 5-3 start, then lost three straight, and ended the year with an 8-6 record and out of playoff contention.

1973 — The defense remained solid but the offense struggled as Dawson was hurt for much of the season. Livingston led the club into first place in late November, but a pair of losses and a tie, gave the team its second straight second-place finish.

1974 — The Chiefs age was beginning to show. Several of the club's key players were entering the twilight of their careers: Dawson was 39, Tyrer was 35, Bell, Buchanan and Budde were 34, Hill was 33, and Taylor was 32. The result was the team's first losing season in 11 years. One of the year's few bright spots in the 5-9 season was Emmitt Thomas' league-leading 12 interceptions. Bell, and eight-time all-pro, concluded his playing career.

1975 — Paul Wiggin, an assistant coach with the San Francisco 49ers, replaced Stram as the team's head coach, and directed the Chiefs to four wins in his first five games. The high point of the season was a 34-31 upset of the Dallas Cowboys on Monday Night Football. Injuries crippled the team, leading to a second straight 5-9 finish. Dawson, the top passer in Chiefs history, announced his retirement after 14 memorable seasons with the franchise. After eight all-pro seasons, Buchanan also finished his last year of play.

1976 — After lingering in Dawson's shadow for eight seasons, Livingston was firmly entrenched as the team's starting quarterback. Even though he played well, the Chiefs still ended the year with their third consecutive 5-9 record.

1977 — The Chiefs suffered their worst season ever, winning just twice. Tom Bettis replaced Wiggin at midseason as the team's head coach, but was able to win just once in seven tries. The heart and soul of the Chiefs defense departed when roommates Lanier and Lynch, a pair of 11-year veterans, retired after the season's end.

1978 — Marv Levy, the former head coach of the Canadian Football League's Montreal Alouettes, was named head coach. His first four draft picks were defensive players, including standouts defensive end Art Still of Kentucky and Gary Spani of Kansas State. Levy installed the Wing-T as his offense. They had the second-most productive ground game in the league and a record five different runners had 100-yard games, including Tony Reed, the team's first 1,000-yard back in 11 years. The team showed signs of improvement, and ended their first 16-game regular season with a 4-12 mark.

1979 — With the second overall pick in the draft, the team landed Colorado State defensive end Mike Bell, a pass rush specialist and perfect complement for Still. Clemson quarterback Steve Fuller was also chosen in the first round by the Chiefs, and by midseason, he had replaced Livingston. With Fuller at the helm, the Chiefs improved from a 1-3 start to finish 7-9.

1980 — In a then-controversial move, the Chiefs released Stenerud, the club's all-time leading scorer, in favor of journeyman Nick Lowery, who had been cut 11 times himself by eight different teams. Despite injuries to key players, the Chiefs made steady improvement. The team came back from an 0-4 start to finish 8-8. The defense came of age with Still, Spani, safety Gary Barbaro and cornerback Gary Green playing major roles. After Fuller was sidelined with a knee injury late in the season, little-known Bill Kenney took over and led the club to two victories in the final three weeks.

1981 — Kenney remained at quarterback and directed the Chiefs to a 6-2 start, including a 37-33 win over the defending Super Bowl champion Steelers in Pittsburgh. The Chiefs were poised to make the playoffs for the first time in 10 years before dropping three straight games in December. A season-ending victory over the Vikings guaranteed the Chiefs their first winning record since 1973. Rookie running back Joe Delaney, a second-round pick from Northwest Louisiana rushed for a then club-record 1,121 yards.

1982 — The Chiefs split their first two games of the year before the players' strike began. The walkout would not be settled until mid-November, and the Chiefs dropped the first four games following the strike's end. Victories in two of the season's final three games left the club with a 3-6 record.

1983 — Tragedy struck the club on June 29, when Delaney, the team's young star running back, drowned trying to save the lives of three youngsters in Monroe, Louisiana. The next day, linebacker Bobby Bell became the first Chiefs player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton. John Mackovic, in his first season as the club's head coach, had trouble finding a suitable replacement for Delaney as the running game suffered. Kenney was coming of age, throwing for 4,348 yards, a Chiefs record and then the fourth-highest total in NFL history. His primary target was wide receiver Carlos Carson, who hauled in 80 passes for 1,351 yards. Despite the team's high-flying offense, the final result was a 6-10 finish.

1984 — The Chiefs used their two first-round draft picks to bolster their lines, picking Pitt All-America Bill Maas then Iowa's huge tackle John Alt. Maas had an immediate impact and was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Kenney suffered a broken thumb during the preseason and was sidelined until the season's seventh week. Todd Blackledge, a first-round pick the previous season, opened the first six contests and had the club 3-3. Inconsistency the rest of the season saw the team conclude the year with an 8-8 mark.

1985 — The Chiefs got off to a flying start, winning three of their first four games. One of the wins, a 28-7 drubbing of the Seattle Seahawks on September 29, saw free safety Deron Cherry tie an NFL record with four interceptions. That would be one of the few remaining bright spots in a 6-10 season.

1986 — Linebacker Willie Lanier was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2. The pieces started coming together for Mackovic, who directed the club to a 7-3 record 10 weeks into the season. The club's defense and special teams were especially effective. Three straight losses in November put the Chiefs playoff chances in jeopardy, though. A 37-0 win over the Broncos at Arrowhead and the team's first ever win at L.A. Memorial Coliseum, a 20-17 squeaker over the Raiders, put the 9-6 Chiefs in position to reach the playoffs. A December 21 date in Pittsburgh was all that stood in their way. Despite being outgained 515 yards to 171, the Chiefs were able to notch a 24-19 victory as all of the team's points came from the special teams. That earned the club an AFC Wild Card berth, the club's first playoff appearance in 15 years. On December 28 at Giants Stadium, the Jets defeated the upstart Chiefs, 35-15.

1987 — Quarterback Len Dawson was inducted into the Pro Fooball Hall of Fame on August 8 in Canton, just a few miles from his hometown of Alliance, Ohio. Special teams coordinator Frank Gansz was promoted to head coach, and he quickly used the draft to solve the Chiefs running woes by selecting nimble Paul Palmer of Temple in the first round and powerful Enugu, Nigeria, native Christian Okoye from tiny Azusa Pacific in the second. Both rookies made a splash in the season-opening win over the Chargers as Palmer returned a kickoff for a touchdown and Okoye dashed for 105 yards. The Chiefs suffered a setback at Seattle the following week, just before another players' strike took place. NFL teams put together "replacement" squads, mostly consisting of players cut in training camp. The Chiefs version lost all three games, and by the time the strike was finished, the team stood 1-4. Five straight losses followed, giving the Chiefs a team-record nine-game skid. Kansas City won three of its last five for a 4-11 mark.

1988 — Defensive end Neil Smith of Nebraska became the team's first-round pick after the club traded its second-round choice to the Detroit Lions in order to move one place up in the first round. For the second straight season, the Chiefs were able to win just four times. Twelve-year veteran Steve DeBerg, acquired in an offseason trade with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, became the club's starting quarterback. On December 19, one day after the season's end, Carl Peterson took oyer as the club's President/ General Manager and Chief Operating Officer.

1989 — Marty Schottenheimer, who directed the Cleveland Browns to two AFC Championship Game appearances, became the seventh head coach in Chiefs history on January 24. With the fourth overall pick in the draft, the team selected Butkus Award winner Derrick Thomas, Alabama's All-America linebacker. The team started slow, winning three of its first eight games. DeBerg, Ron Jaworksi, and Steve Pelluer each took turns as the team's starting quarterback. DeBerg regained the starting job for the final five weeks of the season, generating four wins that put the Chiefs one-half game shy of a playoff berth. The 8-7-1 record was good for second place in the division. Okoye set a club record and became the first Chiefs to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,480 yards, while Thomas won consensus Rookie of the Year honors.

1990 — Defensive tackle Buck Buchanan was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 4. The Chiefs got out of the starting gate quickly, winning three of their first four games. The club then struggled, splitting its next six games, before tearing up the league in the home stretch, winning six of its last seven outings. The team's 11-5 record was the club's best since the 1969 Super Bowl season and advanced the team to the playoffs for just the second time since 1971. Free agent runnng back Barry Word topped the team with 1,015 yards, but the unquestioned leader on offense was DeBerg, who tossed 23 touchdown passes with just four interceptions. Kansas City led the NFL with 60 sacks, including 20 by Thomas, the NFL's sack king. An NFL-record seven of Thomas' sacks came on November 11 against Seattle, a game the Seahawks miraculously won, 17-16, on a last-season touchdown by future Chief Dave Krieg. That loss would bring on the furious streak run.

1991 — On January 5 at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami, the Chiefs suffered a heart-breaking, 17-16 loss to the Dolphins in the AFC First Round Playoff tilt. On July 27, Jan Stenerud became the first pure placekicker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The Chiefs enjoyed another strong 10-6 regular season. The home portion of the schedule was highlighted by a pair of prime-time Monday night affairs. On October 7, the Chiefs toppled the defending AFC Champion Bills, 33-6, in the club's first home Monday night game in eight years. Three weeks later, the Chiefs tallied a thrilling come-from-behind win over the Raiders in front of a national audience. On December 28, the Chiefs play host to the Raiders in the first playoff game ever at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs posted their first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV with a 10-6 decision over the Raiders as Kansas City forced six Los Angeles turnovers.

1992 — On January 5, the Chiefs visited Buffalo for an AFC Divisional Playoff matchup. The Bills dynamic offense proved to be too much for the Chiefs in a 37-14 setback that propelled Buffalo toward the Super Bowl. A melancholy summer awaited the Chiefs, who mourned the passing of Player Personnel Director Whitey Dovell on May 22, and Hall of Famer Buck Buchanan on July 16. Six-time Pro Bowl safety Deron Cherry, owner of 50 career interceptions, announced his retirement in July. The Chiefs battle through an injury-riddled season, during which a playoff berth never seemed certain. On the regular season's final Sunday, the Chiefs faced the Broncos in a game that would send the winner into the playoffs. The Chiefs defense tallied three touchdowns and "Plan B" signee Dave Krieg tossed a pair of scoring passes as the Chiefs buried the Broncos, 42-20. First-round draft pick Dale Carter of Tennessee is named the AFC Defensive Rookie of the Year.

1993 — On January 2 in San Diego, the Chiefs made a quick exit from the playoffs as the Chargers posted a 17-0 victory. The Chiefs spent the off-season retooling their offense. On April 20, the Chiefs traded for quarterback Joe Montana, who directed the San Francisco 49ers to four Super Bowl victories. The Chiefs swapped their first-round pick in the '93 draft to the 49ers in exchange for Montana, safety David Whitmore and San Francisco's third-round pick in '94. Kansas City wasn't done loading up the offense. On June 9 the club signed unrestricted free agent running back Marcus Allen, a certain Hall of Famer and the MVP of Super Bowl XVIII. The additions payed off as the Chiefs went 11-5, won their first AFC West title since '71 and appeared in the AFC Championship Game.

1994 — Kansas City got its first true taste of "Montana Magic" as the NFL's all-time leading passer engineered a brilliant comeback in a first-round playoff win over Pittsburgh on Jan. 8. The Chiefs trailed the Steelers, 17-10, entering the fourth quarter, and then, 24-17, as the two-minute warning sounded. On fourth-and-goal from the seven, Montana fired a game-tying TD pass to wide receiver Tim Barnett. In overtime, kicker Nick Lowery booted a 32-yard field goal as Arrowhead erupted. On Jan. 16, the Chiefs traveled to Houston, where the Oilers sat poised for their 12th straight win. The heavily-favored Oilers opened up a 13-7, fourth-quarter lead, but once again, Montana had a comeback in mind. First, he hit wide receiver J.J. Birden for an 11-yard TD, then he found wide receiver Willie Davis open in the end zone from 18 yards out. RB Marcus Allen nailed the game shut with a 21-yard TD dash and the Chiefs found themselves on the favorable side of a 28-20 decision. The Chiefs playoff journey ended in Buffalo on Jan. 23 as the Bills won their fourth straight AFC title game by a score of 30-13.

ARROWHEAD STADIUM

Arrowhead Stadium, home of the Kansas City Chiefs, is one of the finest facilities in the NFL. It is part of the Harry S. Truman Sports Complex, which also includes a 42,000-seat baseball stadium. Arrowhead was dedicated August 12, 1972 at the inaugural preseason game. Since, 11,963,343 spectators have passed through the stadium turnstiles to enjoy Chiefs football. For the first time in 23 years, the Chiefs will play their home games on a grass surface. The grass field was completed in July of '94.

Level Breakdown: (78,822-approx.)
Upper Level — 33,930; Club Level — 10,199; Lower Level — 34,643; Between End Zones — 50,000.

Construction Data:
Overall Supervision: Jackson County Sports Authority
Architect: Kivett and Myers with Charles Deaton, Design Associate
General Contractor: Sharp, Kidde, Webb
Groundbreaking: July, 1968
Completion: August, 1972
Grass Installation: S.W. Franks, Cleveland, Ohio, General Contractor, July, 1994

Funding:
Funds for Complex development and construction were provided by General Obligation Bond issue approved by voters of Jackson County on June 27, 1967, by a 67.8% majority. Additions to Arrowhead (explained below) are financed by $4.5 million Revenue Bonds to be retired by additional rental payment from Kansas City Chiefs, plus $5 million privately financed by the Chiefs.

Costs: Dual Stadium Complex $53,000,000
Additions to Arrowhead paid by Chiefs ..... $ 9,500,000
(Paid for by the Chiefs, added improvements include 18,000 chair-back seats, computerized scoreboard, all food-beverage service facilities, club facilities, business suites and administrative areas.)

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1962 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
Texans 20, Oilers 17
(Double Overtime)
Jeppesen Stadium, Houston (37,981)
December 23, 1962

A contest that moved the infant American Football League into the national consciousness proved to be the first of three AFL titles for Hank Stram's Texans/Chiefs.

Following second place finishes in each of the league's first two seasons, the Texans ran away with the AFL West championship in 1962. Dallas finished 11-3, a full four games in front, and was matched with the Houston Oilers, also 11-3, who had won the AFL title in 1960 and '61 over the Los Angeles, then San Diego Chargers.

The Texans, paced by a pair of touchdowns from Abner Haynes, took a 17-0 halftime advantage. Haynes scored first on a 28-yard pass from Len Dawson and then on a two-yard run after Tommy Brooker had given Dallas a 3-0 first-quarter advantage with a 16-yard field goal.

But the momentum quickly shifted to the Oilers in the second half. George Blanda, then a "young" 35-year-old, passed 15 yards to Willard Dewveall for a touchdown and kicked a 31-yard field goal before Charley Tolar burst over from the one to tie the game at 17-17 in the fourth quarter.

The two teams then went into the first sudden death overtime in AFL annals. The Texans won the toss and Stram elected to kick off, maintaining his defense could hold the Oilers long enough for Dawson to get the ball in good field position. Herein came the famous "kick to the clock" episode in which Texans captain Haynes inadvertantly elected for his team to kick into the wind instead of having it as the consolation for not receiving the football.

Neither club mounted a serious challenge in the early stages of overtime, but as the fifth quarter was drawing to a close, Dallas defensive end Bill Hull intercepted a Blanda pass and returned it to midfield. Dawson then passed to Jack Spikes for 10 yards; Spikes, the game's most valuable player, then ran for 19 and the Texans were in field goal range. At the 2:54 mark of the sixth quarter, Brooker kicked a 25-yard field goal to give the Texans a 20-17 victory and the American Football League championship. The game lasted 77 minutes and 54 seconds and would be the longest in pro football history until the Chiefs and Miami Dolphins played over 82 minutes nearly a decade later in 1971.

1966 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
Chiefs 31, Bills 7
War Memorial Stadium, Buffalo (42,080)
January 1, 1967

With a berth in Super Bowl I as the prize, the Chiefs visited ancient War Memorial Stadium for a New Year's Day clash with the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills.

The game, played in frigid, sub-freezing temperatures, produced its first break on the opening kickoff. Jerrel Wilson recovered a Bills fumble on the Buffalo 31-yard line. Three plays later, Len Dawson passed 29 yards to Fred Arbanas for the first touchdown and a 7-0 Kansas City lead.

Buffalo, though, tied the game near the end of the opening period when Jack Kemp hit Elbert Dubenion on a 69-yard pass play. Few thought it would be the Bills final score of the day.

The Chiefs defense stiffened and Dawson led the offense to 10 second-quarter points. Otis Taylor caught a 29-yard touchdown pass and Mike Mercer added a 32-yard field goal, aided by a 72-yard pass interception by Johnny Robinson.

Mike Garrett then applied the coup de grace for the Chiefs by scoring on runs of one and 18 yards. Kansas City won its second AFL title in four years and awaited the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I.

SUPER BOWL I
Packers 35, Chiefs 10
Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (63,036)
January 15, 1967

Representing themselves and the American Football League in the first championship match with the National Football League, the Chiefs played well for one half before bowing to the supremacy of the Green Bay Packers.

Vince Lombardi's Packers, one of the great pro football teams of all time, won Super Bowl I by a 35-10 score. But the Packers held a slim 14-10 advantage at the half before the game turned on one play in the third quarter.

Green Bay opened the scoring when Bart Starr passed 37 yards to Max McGee, McGee making a remarkable one-handed catch for the touchdown. Len Dawson tied the game for the Chiefs when he passed to Curtis McClinton for a second period touchdown. The Packers then went back on top, 14-7, before Mike Mercer kicked a 31-yard field goal just before the half ended.

The Chiefs momentum carried over into the third quarter as Kansas City moved to a first down on its initial possession. But then the game's key play, one that doomed the underdog Chiefs, unfolded when Willie Wood intercepted a Dawson pass intended for Fred Arbanas at midfield. Wood returned all the way to the Chiefs 5-yard line, where Elijah Pitts ran for a third Green Bay touchdown and an insurmountable 21-10 lead.

1969 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 17, Raiders 7

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum (54,544)

January 4, 1970

On the day the American Football League played the final game of its 10-year history, the Kansas City Chiefs became the only three-time AFL champion. The Chiefs, through a curious playoff system, played their Western Division rivals, the Oakland Raiders, for the league's last title. Oakland, which had won the AFL West and held a pair of regular season wins over the Chiefs, went down to a 17-7 defeat.

The contest, unlike other Raiders-Chiefs matchups, was marked by turnovers. The two clubs managed one first-half touchdown apiece, Oakland's on a three-yard run by Charlie Smith, Kansas City responding with a one-yard plunge by Wendell Hayes after Len Dawson had hit on passes of 14 yards to Otis Taylor and 41 yards to Frank Pitts.

In the third quarter, George Blanda twice missed field goal attempts that would have moved Oakland in front. Midway through the period, Kansas City mounted a drive from its own 2-yard line, the field position a result of a fumble which luckily was recovered before it bounded into the end zone. Dawson and Taylor pulled Kansas City out of the hole with a 35-yard pass and run play. Robert Holmes added 23 more on a flare pass in the left flat and then scored the go-ahead touchdown five plays later.

At this point the game became a defensive struggle. Led by defensive charges from the entire front four of Aaron Brown, Buck Buchanan, Curley Culp and Jerry Mays, the Chiefs continually harassed Raiders quarterback Daryle Lamonica. But the turnovers which would plaque both teams were only beginning.

In the fourth quarter, turnovers gave Oakland the football three times in Kansas City territory. Three times the Chiefs responded with interceptions, one each by Jim Marsalis, Jim Kearney and Emmitt Thomas. Thomas' steal was his second of the day and covered 62 yards to the Oakland 18-yard line. Jan Stenerud's field goal provided a 17-7 lead and a return to the Super Bowl.

SUPER BOWL IV
Chiefs 23, Vikings 7
Tulane Stadium, New Orleans (80,562)
January 11, 1970

Kansas City's finest sports hour concluded at 5:20 in the afternoon of Sunday, January 11, 1970, when the Chiefs defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 23-7, for the world championship of pro football.

The Chiefs, who finished 11-3 on the season and defeated the New York Jets and Oakland in the playoffs, closed out their first decade as the outstanding team in the American Football League, which, with Super Bowl IV, came to an end. Beginning in 1970, the two leagues merged, with the AFL becoming the American Football Conference of the NFL.

Minnesota, a prohibitive favorite, was 12-2 during the regular season and at one point had won 12 games in succession.

The Chiefs took an early lead when Jan Stenerud kicked a 48-yard first quarter field goal. Stenerud's kick remains a Super Bowl record. He then followed with field goals of 32 and 25 yards for a 9-0 lead.

Kansas City received the first break in the game when the Vikings Charlie West fumbled a kickoff and Remi Prudhomme recovered at the Minnesota 19-yard line. After an eight-yard loss, Len Dawson handed off to Wendell Hayes, who rambled for 13 yards up the middle on a draw play. A 10-yard pass to Otis Taylor gave the Chiefs a first down at the four. Three plays later, Mike Garrett burst off-tackle for the touchdown. The Chiefs held a 16-0 halftime lead, stunning the Vikings and a nationwide television audience.

Minnesota mounted a mild third-quarter comeback when Dave Osborn scored from four yards out to cut the margin to 16-7. But any hopes the Vikings had of getting closer were dashed by Otis Taylor, who lived up to his big-play reputation repeatedly through that season.

Dawson hit Taylor on a short hitch pattern, but when Earsell Mackbee missed the initial tackle, Taylor was loose down the right sideline, highstepping his way to a 46-yard touchdown. After three quarters, the Chiefs again held a 16-point lead.

As was so often the case in 1969, the defense came to the fore. Minnesota had the ball three times in the final period and, as in the Oakland game the previous week, the Chiefs snuffed out all three chances with interceptions. Middle linebacker Willie Lanier picked off a Joe Kapp pass to halt a rally at the Chiefs 34-yard line. Later on, Johnny Robinson, playing with what turned out to be three broken ribs, grabbed another errant Kapp throw. In the game's closing minutes, Emmitt Thomas intercepted his fourth pass of the playoffs. The Chiefs then ran out the clock to capture the AFL's second consecutive Super Bowl triumph.

1993 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Bills 30, Chiefs 13

Rich Stadium (76,642)

January 23, 1994

The Chiefs knew that they had to stop the run in order to win the game, and the 229 rushing yards the Bills put up was all the explanation needed in 30-13 AFC Championship Game setback. The Chiefs were playing in their first ever AFC title game, while the Bills were making in fourth straight.

Neither team's offense was able to move the ball effectively at the start of the first quarter. Midway through the frame, though, RB Thurman Thomas would start to get on track. His easy 12-yard TD scamper gave the Bills a 7-0 lead, but a pair of field goals by K Nick Lowery, cut Buffalo's lead to one as the first quarter came to a close.

The second quarter was all Buffalo as the club scored on three straight possessions, getting a three-yard TD run from Thomas and two Steve Christie field goals. The Chiefs had a chance to cut into the lead as the half ended, but a pass by QB Joe Montana slipped through the hands of RB Kimble Anders, stationed in the end zone, and into the waiting arms of Buffalo S Henry Jones. The Bills led 20-6 at the half as Thomas had already amassed 129 rushing yards.

The Chiefs got the ball to open the second half, but three plays in, Montana suffered a concussion and was sidelined for the remainder of a very chilly afternoon. With 2:58 left in the third quarter, Kansas City shaved the Bills lead down to seven points with a 14-play, 90-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard plunge by RB Marcus Allen. Buffalo answered with an 18-yard TD run by, who else, Thurman Thomas.

The Chiefs were outgained by just 51 yards (389 to 338), but allowed Thomas to gain 186 of the team's 229 rushing yards. Before exiting, Montana was nine-of-23 for 125 yards and one INT, while QB Dave Krieg was 16-of-29 for 125 yards and one INT. TE Keith Cash was again the team's receiving leader with six catches for 87 yards. DE Neil Smith and S Kevin Ross each contributed 11 tackles.

CHIEFS HALL OF FAME

In tribute to those who have made outstanding contributions to the success of the Kansas City Chiefs Football Club, the team has established a Hall of Fame. New inductees are selected by a three-man committee, representing the Chiefs Booster Club, the area media and the Chiefs organization. The award is presented annually at the "101 Banquet."

CHIEFS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

LAMAR HUNT, AFL & Chiefs Founder, 1960-present.
Inducted in 1972.

Founded the American Football League in 1960 with his Dallas Texans franchise . . . Became the first AFL figure to be inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1972 . . . Described during his induction ceremonies as the "architect, designer and builder of an impossible dream" . . . Serves as the president of the American Football Conference . . . Since 1984, the AFC championship game trophy has carried his name . . . Has seen the Chiefs win three AFL titles and a Super Bowl trophy . . . Was born August 2, 1932, in El Dorado, Arkansas . . . Graduated from Southern Methodist University in 1956 with a B.S. in geology . . . Was a reserve end on SMU's football team . . . He and his wife, Norma, reside in Dallas and have four children, Lamar, Jr., Sharon, Clark and Daniel.

BOBBY BELL, Linebacker, 6-4, 225, 1963-74.
Inducted in 1983.

Became the first Chiefs player to be enshrined in the Hall when he was chosen in the Class of 1983 . . . Some have called him the greatest outside linebacker to play the game . . . Superb athlete began his pro career as a defensive end, because Chiefs needed help at that position when he was drafted in the seventh round in 1963 . . . Earned All-AFL or All-AFC honors for eight consecutive years . . . During that span he starred on two AFL Championship teams, played in Super Bowls I and IV, and was named to the AFL all-decade team in 1969 . . . Intercepted 26 passes and recovered 15 fumbles (tying Willie Lanier and Deron Cherry for Kansas City record) . . . Born June 17, 1940 in Shelby, North Carolina . . . Was an all-state quarterback at Cleveland High School in Shelby . . . Was the Outland Trophy winner as college football's outstanding lineman as a senior in 1962 at Minnesota . . . Played on College All-Star team that defeated the Packers in 1963 . . . Resides in Kansas City.

WILLIE LANIER, Middle Linebacker, 6-1, 245, 1967-77.
Inducted in 1986.

As part of the Hall's Class of 1986, he became the second Chiefs player to be enshrined in Canton . . . Chiefs starting middle linebacker for 11 years, he possessed a ferocious tackling style that made him a feared run-stopper . . . Also had the speed and agility that helped him grab 27 career interceptions, good for the sixth-most ever by a Chief . . . His 15 fumble recoveries tie Bobby Bell and Deron Cherry for the most ever by a Chiefs defender . . . A second-round draft choice in 1967, he missed just five games in his 11 NFL campaigns . . . Played in two AFL All-Star games and five AFC-NFC Pro Bowls . . . Helped Chiefs to their only World Championship, a Super Bowl IV victory over Minnesota . . . Born August 21,1945 in Clover, Virginia . . . Attended Maggie L. Walker High School in Richmond, Virginia . . . Was a two-time small college All-America pick at Morgan State . . . Named Tangerine Bowl MVP . . . Graduated from Morgan State in 1967 with a B.S. in business administration . . . Lives in Richmond, where he is vice president at First Wheat Securities.

LEN DAWSON, Quarterback, 6-0, 190, 1962-75.
Inducted in 1987.

Heart and sole of Texans/Chiefs franchise during his illustrious career . . . During his tenure as the team's field general, he helped make the Chiefs one of pro football's premier teams and wound up among the elite passers in the game's history . . . Under his guidance, the Chiefs were perennial contenders and won AFL Championships in 1962, 1966 and 1969 . . . Was MVP of Super Bowl IV when he directed Kansas City to a win over heavily-favored Minnesota . . . Won AFL passing titles four times and still holds Chiefs career marks for pass rating, attempts, completions, completion percentage, passing yards and touchdowns . . . Started pro career with the Steelers, as a first-round pick in '56, then landed with the Browns before ending up with the Texans . . . Born June 20, 1935 in Alliance, Ohio . . . Attended Alliance High School . . . Led Big 10 in passing and total offense for three seasons at Purdue . . . Does play-by-play on Chiefs Radio and is the sports anchor at KMBC-TV in Kansas City.

BUCK BUCHANAN, Defensive Tackle, 6-7, 275, 1963-75.
Inducted in 1990.

Became third member of feared Kansas City defense to enter the Hall . . . The first overall selection in the 1963 AFL draft, he became the prototype for future pro defensive linemen . . . Combined perfect size with outstanding strength and deceptive speed . . . Helped Kansas City win two AFL crowns and their only Super Bowl in 1970 . . . Had an eight-year stretch where he either went to the AFL All-Star game or the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl . . . Was a unanimous All-AFL pick from 1966-69 . . . His teammates named him the Chiefs MVP in 1965 and 1967 . . . Born September 10, 1940 in Gainesville, Alabama . . . Was captain of both football and basketball squads at Parker High School in Birmingham . . . Played tackle on both sides of the ball at Grambling for Eddie Robinson, who called him "the finest tackle I have ever seen" . . . Owned All-Pro Construction Company and All-Pro Advertising in Kansas City . . . Died July 16, 1992.

JAN STENERUD, Placekicker, 6-2, 190, 1967-79.
Inducted in 1991.

The first pure placekicker to be inducted into the Hall and the fifth Chiefs player to make it to Canton . . . Regarded by many as the best placekicker in pro football history . . . Played 19 NFL seasons: Kansas City 1967-79; Green Bay 1980-83; and Minnesota 1984-85 . . . Owns NFL record for most career field goals made with 373 and is second to George Blanda on the league's all-time scoring list with 1,699 points . . . Still owns or shares 9 Chiefs records, including career records for field goals attempted (436) and consecutive games played (186) . . . Hit a 48-yard field goal in Super Bowl IV victory . . . Was selected by Chiefs in third round of '66 AFL "red shirt" draft . . . Attended Montana State on a skiing scholarship . . . A native of Fetsund, Norway . . . Is now director of business development for Howard Needles Tammen & Bergendoff, a Kansas City architectural firm.

MACK LEE HILL AWARD

WILL SHIELDS

Each year since 1966, the Chiefs veteran players have selected a recipient for the Mack Lee Hill Award. It is a tribute to the late Mack Lee Hill, an outstanding running back who played for the Chiefs in 1964 and 1965. He was described as a man who played as much with his heart as he did with his driving legs in the early days of the American Football League.

In memory and tribute to Hill, the award is presented annually to the Chiefs rookie or first-year player, who, as the inscription on the trophy reads — "best exemplifies the spirit of the late Mack Lee Hill . . . the man with the giant heart and quiet way." In selecting the recipient, the Chiefs veterans look for a first-year player who has displayed the spirit and attitude of Mack Lee Hill.

The 1993 winner of the award was guard Will Shields, who became a starter at right guard from the second week of his rookie season. Last year, Shields' play earned him unanimous all-rookie honors. The soft-spoken Shields was selected by Kansas City in the third round of last year's draft. He was a rare three-time All-Big Eight choice and as a senior, he won the Outland Trophy, which annually goes to college football's finest interior lineman.

Running back Mack Lee Hill bursts forward for yardage against the Raiders during his memorable two-year pro career with the Chiefs.

LATE ARRIVALS

GEORGE JAMISON • 57
Linebacker Ht: 6-1 Wt: 235

How Acquired: Unrestricted Free Agent (1994)
College: Cincinnati
NFL Experience: 8 (1st with Chiefs)
Birthdate: September 30, 1962
Birthplace: Bridgeton, New Jersey
Residence: Rochester Hills, Michigan

Pro Career: Veteran linebacker was signed by Kansas City as an unrestricted free agent from the Detroit Lions in July of '94 . . . In seven years with the Lions, he established himself as one of the better and most versatile outside linebackers in the league . . . Is one of the most under-rated linebackers in the NFL . . . Versatile linebacker can cover backs and tight ends, plays the run well and has the ability to rush the passer . . . Excelled in the USFL, winning two championships with the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars in '84 and '85 . . . Chiefs President/GM Carl Peterson was also the President/GM of the Stars . . . Was Detroit's second-round selection in the '84 USFL supplemental draft . . . Signed with the Lions during the '86 training camp . . . Started every game for the Lions the past three seasons . . . In 101 career games (72 starts), he has amassed 444 tackles (354 solos), 18½ sacks, eight interceptions, eight forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries, three touchdowns and one safety. 1993: Finished third on the Lions with 78 tackles as a starter at left outside linebacker in every game . . . Also contributed two sacks, two interceptions and a forced fumble . . . Scored the third touchdown of his NFL career on a 35-yard interception return in the season opener vs. Atlanta (9/5) . . . Had five stops and a sack at L.A. Rams (10/24). 1992: Was second on the team with a career-high 111 tackles, including 80 solos . . . Added two sacks, one fumble recovery and three forced fumbles . . . Had a sack against Tampa Bay (10/25) . . . Recorded a season-high 13 tackles vs. Green Bay (12/6). 1991: Outstanding season earned him Defensive MVP honors from his teammates . . . Ranked among the team leaders in every defensive category . . . Racked up 86 tackles, four sacks, three interceptions, two forced fumbles and one recovered fumble . . . Led team with nine tackles, picked off a pass and added a sack against N.Y. Jets (12/8) . . . Also had sacks vs. Indianapolis (9/22) and Tampa Bay (9/29) . . . Had six tackles vs. Dallas (1/5/92) in NFC Divisional Playoff Game and five vs. Washington (1/12/92) in the NFC Championship Game. 1990: Played well despite being hampered much of the season with a shoulder injury . . . Started seven of 14 games, finishing the year with 43 tackles, two sacks and one forced fumble . . . Suffered the injury vs. Tampa Bay (9/23) . . . Saw limited action throughout the middle portion of the schedule, then regained his starting job Week 14 when he made six tackles against the Raiders (12/10). 1989: Sustained a severe ankle injury in the first preseason game vs. Cleveland (8/12), which shelved him until Week 2 of the regular season at N.Y. Giants (9/17) . . . Opened six of 11 games . . . Received the starting nod in place of the injured Michael Cofer at Minnesota (10/8) and also started the next three games . . . Suffered a season-ending knee injury at Cincinnati (11/19). 1988: Went from a special teams player to a part-time starter, opening 11 of his 16 appearances . . . Recorded 77 tackles (fifth-most on the team), 5½ sacks (fourth), three interceptions (tied for team lead) and three fumble recoveries (third) . . . Also scored a pair of touchdowns . . . The first came in the season opener vs. Atlanta (9/4) when he recovered a fumbled punt by James Matthews and returned it four yards for the score . . . The second occurred against Minnesota (11/6) on a 52-yard interception return; it was his first NFL interception . . . Tallied a career-most 14 tackles on Thanksgiving Day vs. Minnesota (11/24). 1987: Played in 12 games, primarily on special teams . . . Totaled 16 tackles, one sack and one safety . . . Got his first NFL sack at Denver (11/1) . . . Was credited with a safety after pinning Green Bay's Walter Stanley in the end zone (10/25). 1986: Signed by Detroit as a free agent on Aug. 17 . . . Sustained an Achilles injury in training camp and was placed on injured reserve for the entire season on Aug. 30. USFL (1984-85): Was selected by the Philadelphia Stars in the second round (35th pick) of the '84 Open Draft . . . Played a big part on a team that won the USFL Championship in both '84 and '85 . . . Had four sacks in '84 and five in '85.

College/Personal: Excelled as a pass rusher at Cincinnati, where he compiled 29 career sacks . . . Was All-Metro Conference and an honorable mention All-America selection as a senior . . . Led team with six sacks and added 62 tackles as a senior . . . Played defensive tackle as a sophomore and junior before moving to linebacker . . . Was originally recruited as a fullback . . . Graduated with honors in human resource development from the University of Detroit in May '90 . . . Became the first pro athlete to earn a U-D degree through the Cooperative Education Program . . . Interned as a career placement counselor . . . Attended Bridgeton (N.J.) High School . . . Full name: George R. Jamison, Jr. . . . Married, wife Arnella.
